

Luton 3, Leeds 2

● A half-time pep talk by manager Sam Bartram won the day for Luton, transforming them from a drab, listless side into one with method in their movements.

● The teams were all square at the half-way mark, Legate having neatly nodded home a Luton goal after eight minutes.

● Revie, with a sizzling cross shot reminiscent of his star class days, equalised in the twenty-fifth minute.

● It was right winger Fleming who eventually shot Luton ahead after fifty-six minutes, but a minute later came uproar.

● For no apparent reason referee Reg Leafe awarded Leeds a penalty.

● Not until after the game was it learned that he had adjudged a Luton defender to have handled. Bremner scored from the spot.

● Legate won the match for Luton in the sixty-third minute.
