

Luton Snatch a Point 61/62

Liverpool 1, Luton Town 1

LUTON made a gallant fight back against superior opposition to force their third successive draw at Anfield.

The result may have flattered them, for they were hardly in Liverpool's class either collectively or individually, but they did keep striving, and their efforts paid off when Ron Yeats, the towering Liverpool centre-half who had defied all Luton's efforts, fell over.

This enabled the quick-thinking Turner to dart through and strike a post, and after the ball had been scrambled away it went back to Turner, who placed it into the top far corner of the net in 87 minutes.

Lewis Scores

As it was they had only one goal which came from inside-right Lewis deputising for the injured Hunt. Milne lobbed a free-kick towards the far posts and Lewis rushed through to score.

A header by Callaghan was dropping just inside the far post when up popped McNally to clear. Liverpool claimed that the ball had already crossed the line
