

This one had Baynham airborne. Massie managed to deflect the ball from him, but McNally was there to clear.

Big feature of the match was the misdirected shooting of the Huddersfield forwards. Here comes a shot from McHale. Like so many more it went wide.

Luton Town gave Yorkshire a shock when they went to Huddersfield on Saturday and won 2—1. Huddersfield's only goal was from a penalty; Coddington (right) gave Baynham no chance.
