

LUTON RALLY

TOO LATE <sup>4/62</sup>

Scunthorpe ... 2    Luton ..... 0

SCUNTHORPE, back into third position in the Second Division table, begin to look serious challengers for promotion along with Liverpool.

The way they cut through the Luton defence on Saturday on a glue-like pitch was remarkable, but the manner in which they wasted their chances before goal was equally astonishing.

Kaye, the centre-forward, was the chief culprit, although Marriott and Thorpe, the wingers, could take some of the blame for the margin of Scunthorpe's win not being more decisive.

The inside-right, Hodgson, who gave his best display for Scunthorpe since arriving from Newcastle, was more on the target, and unlucky not to score on two or three occasions in the first half.

Slow starters, hesitant and uncertain, Luton laboured the close passing game to offer more resistance in the second half.

Ashworth tries shots

Twice Jones made splendid saves from Ashworth, but that was about the sum total of Luton's sting in attack.

McGuigan, the best forward of the match, scored after 32 minutes and two minutes later, Kaye got the second goal.
