

With a neat glancing header, Ken Hodgson directs the ball wide of Luton's Ron Baynham at Scunthorpe on Saturday. However, Luton were able to breathe again when the referee disallowed the goal for off-side

Luton Town travelled north on Saturday and dropped two points to promotion-chasing Scunthorpe in a match which again showed up the Town's weaknesses in their front line. Both Scunthorpe's goals came in the first half. ABOVE: A header by McGuigan (partly obscured by the post) enters the net for the home team's first goal.
