

Forwards and defenders spent a great deal of the time during Saturday's League match bunched in the Bournemouth penalty area. The result: stalemate. It took a penalty to settle the issue, and send 6,361 supporters home happy.—