

A good start to the Christmas programme of three games was provided by the Town's victory over Reading at Kenilworth-road last Saturday. Man who lent new enthusiasm to the front line was John O'Rourke, seen here going up for a header.—JK1160B.

John Reid, making his home debut in the match against Reading last week, goes up with a Reading player in this goal-mouth skirmish.—JK1157B.

The Reading goalkeeper dashes out to scramble the ball clear from the Luton forwards during the game with Reading last Saturday.—JK1159B.

John O'Rourke continues his duel with the Reading goalkeeper. This time it was the young Luton leader who got to the ball first.—JK1161B.