

COOL LUTON SAFER

Oldham0 Luton1

COOOL and methodical Luton won two points that reduce their relegation threat to an outside chance. But the game was extremely dull at times.

Oldham tried hard to hit back, but their attack never looked like creating many chances. The only real threats to Luton came from shots by Johnstone and left-half Frizzell.

After the interval Luton were back in command and centre-half McCall prevented a second goal when he kicked McKechnie's shot off the line.

Oldham attempted a rally in the last 20 minutes but there was more panic than poise about their efforts.
