

LOWNDES EARNS LUTON POINTS

BY A SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Oldham 0, Luton T. 1

Working their way energetically clear of relegation, Luton Town fully deserved to extend their unbeaten run to seven games with 12 points from the last possible 14.

A defender, the left-half Lowndes, scored the vital 35th-minute goal. Reid took an indirect free-kick inside the penalty area and sold the dummy to Oldham's defence before slipping the kick sideways to Lowndes who quickly beat the unsighted Bollands.
