

Luton Give Watford The Old 1-2

63/64

Luton Town's relegation fears came to an end at Kenilworth-road, on Saturday afternoon. So did any hopes their opponents—Watford—may have had of promotion to Division II. The Town were always the better side in a match in which centre-forward John O'Rourke settled the issues with a couple of fine opportunist goals, the first of which is captured by the camera in the above picture.—JK4881B.

FANS INVADE THE PITCH

Jubilant fans invade the pitch after the Town's second and decisive goal in their 2-1 defeat of near neighbours, Watford, at Kenilworth-road, on Saturday. This was the goal that helped to settle the teams' promotion/relegation issues.—JK4883B.

And O'Rourke's second goal came like this—to the jubilation of Town supporters among the 20,000 crowd, and the bitter disappointment of Watford fans. Luton won 2-1 in this, the last home match of the season.—JK4882B.

Up go the heads in this mid-air duel during the Town's 2-1 defeat of Watford, on Saturday. All the goals came in the second period, and the result means that both sides will be playing Division III football again next season after Luton's recent relegation fears and Watford's promotion hopes.—JK4879B.
