

AITCHISON SLIP GIVES POINTS TO LUTON

Colchester 0 Luton Town 1

Colchester slumped for the second time on their own ground, and they can thank the lively Luton attack that they didn't fall heavier.

Colchester badly lacked drive in the forward line, and the 23rd-minute goal given away by left-winger Aitchison was enough to give Luton the points.

Soon after the start Colchester had inside-forward Stark limping in the middle after an early collision. This took both the punch and much of the craft out of the home forward line.

Connolly, at centre-forward, Grice on the right wing and Trevis at right-half, all came close when the home side mounted a second-half comeback, but it was too late.
