

'KEEPER BAYNHAM IS SUPERB

Oldham 0, Luton 2

LUTON can thank goal-keeper Ron Baynham for their win at Oldham. His super display was the only difference between well matched sides.

Oldham were unlucky to find him in such form. With a fair share of the ball and Harris spearheading a determined attack, they should have had some reward.

Wing halves Frizzell and McCall put in an exhausting ninety minutes for Oldham, but the Luton defence gave the attack little room.

Inside left Reid's two goals were a combination of good luck and blunders by Oldham 'keeper Bolland.

The first, in the seventh minute, was a hopeful long shot for which Bolland went the wrong way.

In the seventy-eighth minute Bolland failed to cover a simple cross from the right with Reid waiting alongside him to push the ball in.
