Sunderland goalkeeper McLaughlan had plenty to keep him occupied as the spirited Town forged to the attack. Above he goes down on his knee to gather a shot from Tommy McKechnie (RB3987E). Left: He flies through the air to punch away from Gordon Riddick (RB3971E).

Riddick in action again (below) as he turns in toward goal, avoiding a despairing tackle by a Sunderland defender.—RB3988E.

Above: A good illustration of the typical, full-blooded action the game produced, as Tommy McKechnie hurtles in at goalkeeper McLaughlan who once again managed to save the day for Sunderland.—RB3980E.

Right: Sunderland have cause for alarm as McKechnie races in again, but the ball flew the wrong side of a post with McLaughlan stranded.

One That Scraped Past

Right: A close call at the Sunderland end as goalkeeper McLaughlan gratefully watches another shot from the often unfortunate Luton forwards scrape just wide of a post.—RB3981E.
