

LUTON FINISH ON WEAK NOTE

Luton ... 0 Workington ... 0

Neither team showed sufficient skill to stir the emotions of the small crowd at Luton last night. Perhaps there was some excuse for doomed Luton, so affected by injuries and illness that they had to field a full-back Jardine, at centre-forward.

The enforced experiment failed. The most dangerous shooting came from their right-half, Gibson. Luton frittered away their chances and Whittaker shot wide of an empty net a quarter of an hour from the end.

There were times in the second half when Workington looked useful in midfield but only Napier had any idea of where the goal lay. He tested Tinsley severely three times, but the game spluttered out as the tamest of goalless draws.
