

Thomson is sent off in match of shame

Doncaster 1      Luton 1

LUTON
right back Bobby Thomson

was ordered off after 52 minutes of Soccer
shame at Doncaster
last night.

Referee Peter Baldwin, of Middlesbrough, sent off Thomson following two tackles on Doncaster's John Wylie. Thomson protested to the referee, then left the field holding his mouth as his team-mates crowded around Baldwin.

The earlier trouble had reached a peak with a penalty after John O'Rourke, Luton centre forward, had been fouled by Keith Ripley.

RAY WHITTAKER

65/66
scored from the spot a minute before Thomson's dismissal.

Doncaster equalised three minutes before the end with an ALICK JEFFREY header from a corner.

It was remarkable that Jeffrey could still move. He was one of the chief victims of a grim game of tripping, kicking, and unnecessary toughness.
