

Luton stay too long in defence

Newport 2, Luton 0

SWITCHING from a defensive policy which had them struggling and a goal down at half-time, Luton were unlucky to lose at Somerton Park.

Soon after the start, Luton goalkeeper Tony Read saved magnificently from Ken Morgan. But he was beaten when a Len Hill shot hit the post, and again as Fraser headed Newport into a 26th minute lead.

Newport were kept under continuous pressure, and Ray Whittaker almost snatched a 57th-minute equaliser.

Then against the run of play, Morgan lobbed in Newport's second twelve minutes from the end.
