Club Notes

Tonight's Cup-tie replay with Exeter City is in the nature of a bonus for us and a very well earned one it is because the team earned the right to a second chance against the Devon team as the result of a most workmanlike display at St. James' Park last Saturday.

In their display, there was keen evidence of hard work in preparation and real signs that the influence of our new manager, Allan Brown, who is out training every day with the players, is beginning to bear fruit.

Naturally, we are hoping for victory tonight to reward, not only the supporters who have stuck to us loyally during the recent bad spell, but to encourage those who are not so regular on the terraces, to help boost the attendance at forthcoming League matches.

Unfortunately, the luck of the draw has been against us again because, if we win tonight, we are called upon to travel for the fourth consecutive time in this competition in two seasons.

Next opponents for tonight's winners will be Bristol Rovers at Eastville, a ground on which a succession of Luton teams has had a great deal of experience and, let it be said, mixed fortunes, too.

One handicap under which the team has been labouring recently is the continued absence through illness of Graham French. Not only is he not available tonight, but it seems unlikely that he will be in the team for the vital match at Lincoln on Saturday.

Fortunately, it looked, when these notes were written, that our casualties of last Saturday, Bobby Thomson and Bruce Rioch would have made a full recovery and that was certainly a relief in the circumstances.

Assuming that there is a definite result tonight, the Bedfordshire Professional Cup Semi-final with Dunstable Town will be staged on this ground on Monday, kick-off 7.30 p.m.

Winners will meet the holders, Bedford Town, in the final, probably at the end of the season, and there should be quite a welcome for our former players in the Dunstable ranks, Seamus Dunne, Terry Kelly, Alan Clarke, Ken Hawkes, Colin Bishop, Jackie Walker and Mick Forsyth.

On Saturday, the ground has been loaned to the Bedfordshire F.A. for their F.A. County Youth Cup-tie with Essex (3 p.m.) and a most entertaining match is expected.

After not having had a home League match for a month, the team resumes in front of their own supporters on Saturday week when Chesterfield are the visitors.
