Club Notes

IRONICALLY, our long run without an away win came to an end at Nottingham last Saturday, after a display that rated as not so good as most of those produced in recent away games which have been lost.

All the same, some regard had to be paid to the difficulty of the conditions, presented by the firm ground, the lively ball and a strong, tricky wind.

That the points were invaluable does not need emphasising and the hope is now that it will not be long before the thought of being involved in a desperate battle at the end of the season to avoid having to apply for re-election, can be finally pushed aside.

This will almost be achieved if two points are safely gathered from Exeter this afternoon and again next Saturday, when Chester, on whose ground we forced a goalless draw earlier in the season, will be the visitors.

By now, our players should have a pretty fair knowledge of the strength and weaknesses of the Exeter team because this is the fourth time they have met this season.

First two were in the Cup, with our team winning a dourly fought replay at Kenilworth Road by 2-0 after a 1-1 draw at St. James's Park.

Three weeks ago, in Devon, we were beaten 2-1 which was almost a ludicrous result on the run of the play, especially that in the first half when the team played really well.

It was in this match that Bruce Rioch received the injury which has been aggravated since and led to him, at the beginning of the week to be ordered a rest for a fortnight.

At the moment, injuries are posing something of a problem and it is unfortunate for player and club that the promising Brian Johnson should be out of action at this juncture.

Although the Reserves went down 4-0 to Q.P.R. at Loftus Road on Wednesday, they were firmly in the game for an hour and are hoping for a better result when they receive Colchester United next Wednesday, kick-off 7.30 p.m.

During last season and this, several local firms and also individual well-wishers, have been kind enough to give us match balls which is something we appreciate very much.

Now, we find that the supply for the remainder of the season is in danger of running out and offers would be more than welcome.
