CLUB COMMENT

Speculation has been rife in recent weeks about the possibility of the end of Fourth Division football in the future. We, at Swansea Town, do not subscribe to this pessimism and in any case we have set our sights on getting back into the higher grade of league soccer as soon as possible.

Maybe there is a serious concern by some over the economics of running a club in the lower divisions. True many clubs depend almost entirely on organised pools and sweepstakes but the answer to the problem must lie in the ability and crowd appeal of the team.

Swansea Town is endeavouring to entertain its supporters but the emphasis must always be on success pointwise. It is no good becoming a team of individual entertainers and lose with monotonous regularity. In the past Swansea Town frequently earned itself praise but slumped in the final reckoning.

We lost at Oxford last week in the Football League Cup but showed much improvement on the performance with Bradford. At Doncaster two points came our way and the lads deserved them but there was distinct easing up after taking a two goals lead. No team can afford to release the brake on the opposition and we must learn by experience.

Today's visitors, Luton Town, are having a good season so far. In mid-week they slammed Second Division Charlton Athletic out of the League Cup and are showing distinct signs of a return to the days when they conquered most teams in the F.A. Cup, First and Second Divisions.

On Tuesday, we welcome Brentford to the Vetch Field. Like ourselves the London club feels somewhat 'lost' in Division Four and are making an all-out effort to move up. To them and to Luton we offer a warm greeting.

Official Swans Supporters' News.

As a service to our younger members, we are arranging to exchange a number of our club badges with other Supporters' Clubs, so that the youngsters who collect badges will be able to obtain these from Mr. Walker at the Supporters' Club Offices behind the 'big bank'.

Sales of club diaries are going very well, and our stock is now very low, so make sure of buying your diary today. Contact the young ladies who are circulating around the ground, they also have club pens at 6d. each, and club badges at 3/- each.

Following a request from the Newport Supporters' Club to arrange a football match for one of their sides, who will be visiting Swansea on 26th December to see the Swansea Town v Newport match, we are pleased to state, that through the good offices of The Swansea Corinthian Football League, this match has been arranged. More details at a later date. This service can also work in reverse, if any local side intend to support the Swans at an away fixture, we will do everything in our power to arrange a match for them on the Saturday morning, if they contact the Supporters' Club Secretary.

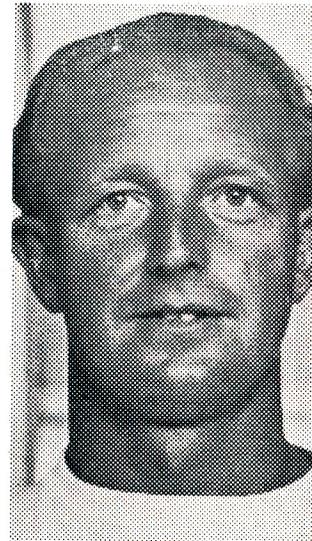

There is a steady demand for places in the bus for Aldershot on October 7th. Fare is £1-2-6d, and Mr Fred Williams is ever ready to 'book you in'.

We welcomed the news that the Swans obtained two good points last week at Doncaster and we look forward to a repeat performance to-day.

If you are not a member of the Supporters' Club - - Why not join today.

PERSONALITY OF THE WEEK

Ivor Allchurch, MBE is the most written about footballer ever associated with Swansea Town and we make no excuse for mentioning him once again. This is Ivor's Testimonial Year, a fitting twelve months to an illustrious career. Shortly a book will be published all about Swansea's "Golden Boy" and news will be announced of his Testimonial Match which will be played at Vetch Field.

Ivor has been in Football for 21 years, made over 700 first team appearances in League and Cup and will be celebrating his 38th birthday in October. During this long and internationally studded career (68 Caps), Ivor Allchurch has never been sent off the field or had his name taken by a Referee.

HOME FRONT NEWS

Bert James, known to his friends as Monty, is on the mend. Swansea Town's general factotum is recovering from a serious illness and is now back home after a long stay in Morriston Hospital.

Sid Tucker - Vetch Field groundsman - is in harness once again after undergoing an operation at Morriston Hospital.

Ivor, Swansea Town's white budgie, has flown the coop. The club mascot escaped from his cage last week, visited the gaol across the road and is now an official escapee. Any news of Ivor will be most welcome.
