For striking sets and matchless performance REDIFFUSION

SO NEAR - AND YET

Nour "Meet the Staff" feature in to-day's programme Jim Murphy offers a sharp reminder that many football issues cannot be thought to be settled until the very last day of a season. But even with this in mind, we must say it looks a very safe bet indeed that Luton Town—our visitors tonight—will be playing in the Third Division next season.

They have enjoyed a remarkably successful season, in having risen strikingly from a lowly situation last campaign, and their remarkable rise reflects great credit on their manager, Mr. Allan Brown, a former player of theirs.

Our last home match, against Hartlepools United, provided such a disastrous performance and terrible defeat, by three clear goals, that we clearly have to do something tonight to restore the shattered faith of our fans.

It is impossible to offer any excuses for that Hartlepools debacle, and just as pointless to offer reasons behind it—because there were none of a sound nature. We were beaten by, with respect, an average-looking team which deserved to win because we were second best at every aspect of the game. A humiliating experience indeed !

IT WAS this serious setback, and the implications it had on avoiding a last-four place, that caused team changes to be made for the Good Friday visit to Luton for the first of our three holiday games.

* * *

We went into this programme fully realising that a great improvement was needed, especially bearing in mind the tough character of the programme that now confronts us. After today's game, we are at home again on Saturday—and again to promotion challengers in Barnsley.

When Barnsley lost 1—0 at Bradford City ten days ago they were edged out of the top four, but knew that of their last seven matches five were at home and only two away. This will not make them any less determined for points on Saturday in what promises to be another formidable situation for Notts.

Meet the Staff: Jim Murphy

JIM MURPHY, the newest recruit to the Meadow Lane professional staff, comes with a lot of experience behind him in both the First and Second Divisions of the Scottish League—and with a big reputation as a goal scorer.

Born at Bathgate, about 30 miles from Edinburgh in East Lothian, he played for two minor clubs, Lesmahagow and Thistle, before joining Second Division Alloa Athletic in 1962-3. He immediately created a hit as a striker, netting 17 goals in half a season while playing mostly at centre forward.

It was on the strength of this evidence that, the following season, Hearts snapped him up. They had just been knocked out of the Inter-Cities Fairs Cup by a Swiss side when their famous manager, Mr. Tommy Walker, decided to sign Jim and thus to begin a unique partnership between them.

For last October, when Jim was — transferred from Hearts, it was Mr. Walker who again showed his faith in him by signing him for a second time—this time for Raith Rovers.

Jim enjoyed his time in Scottish football, never more than in the 1954-5 campaign. He had a personal triumph in registering all four goals in a 4-0 Hearts win over East Stirling, yet it was a season which finished on a heartbreaking note for the Hearts club.

In their last match of the season they faced Kilmarnock at home, and Kilmarnock had to win by a two-goal margin to pip Hearts for the Scottish First Division title. Kilmarnock did, in fact, shake the Scottish soccer world with a 2-0 victory—and Jim and his team-mates were thus denied the championship.

How is he finding English football? "The pace is about the same, but the game down here is played more to a pre-determined method. For that reason defences are tighter and harder to break down," he says.

Jim and his wife and their 15 month old daughter, Andrea,
