

HOW BUXTON AND ALLEN SANK WATFORD . . .

The moment of decision for Watford defender Tom Walley (6). A wild tackle on Brian Lewis in the 85th minute at Kenilworth Road brought out the referee's book and the Welsh Under-23 international hangs his head in shame before he starts the long walk back to the dressing rooms.

It's on the way. The ball flashes towards the Watford goal from the boot of Luton's Ian Buxton, extreme right, and the Third Division champions-elect are having second thoughts. Buxton's superb shot in the 29th minute of Wednesday night's derby was added to by Keith Allen's (10) fine headed effort from a corner (picture below) in the 70th minute. Watford were really in trouble then and only managed to snatch a consolation effort through Scullion in the 87th minute.
