

The moment Luton got a penalty

Malcolm Macdonald is brought down and Luton Town are awarded what was to be a point-saving penalty. The ball is bobbing away to Roger Hoy, who nets, but referee Challis had already whistled for the foul. Mac got up and equalised with the Birmingham fans doing their best to put him off. Picture: PETER HOARE.