...and success

SIR ALF RAMSEY was at Carrow Road on Saturday to see Luton keep up their promotion push with a 1-1 draw with Norwich. Was he there to cast an eye over Malcolm Macdonald, the Division's leading scorer, who notched another on Saturday?
