

Cassidy's salute

Viv Busby's goal is the Town's sole consolation

THIS season has ceased to have any real significance for Luton. Out of the promotion hunt, they went down 2-1 at Oxford City last night.

Any consolation they could have gleaned came from the goal scored by Viv Busby, who took a sharp chance well. He was the man who scored Luton's two goals at Orient last Saturday and he struck again last night.

In our wire picture

(right), Nigel Cassidy salutes the London Road end after scoring the second goal for Oxford.

Action

An Oxford player comes to congratulate him — and Town's Chris Nicholl shows his disappointment from the dejected stoop of his shoulders.

Above, a tremendous goalmouth scramble early in the game. Coming from a mistake by the Luton defence, three Oxford men all had shots blocked by the defence before Barber gathered the awkwardly bouncing ball.

It was a real let off for Luton.

In the action (from left to right) are: John Ryan, Keith Barber, John Moore, Roger Hoy, Graham Atkinson (Oxford), Alan Slough, Nigel Cassidy (Oxford), Chris Nicholl, Mike Keen.

