

THE LUCK OF LUTON

LUTON 1, SWINDON 1

LUTON had a penalty, Swindon didn't. Though when Rogers was brought down from behind in the Luton area a penalty looked certain. It was not given.

Just as well for Luton, for they would never have come back if the Swindon spot-kick had been awarded.

Givens scored from their own penalty, given when Macdonald was tripped.

Luton did liven up a bit later on, though Downsborough in the Swindon goal kept them out well.

Sneaky

70/71

Jones sneaked a good equaliser in the second half, after Trollope moved up out of defence to make another man up front.

Macdonald looked the most determined of the Luton attack early on, but faded. Slough was their defence star, but most of his moves to get the front line moving were wasted.

Swindon's ball-playing winger Rogers looked unusually docile largely because he was up against Goodeve, who never stopped working.
