

Luton's 'wild' finishing stuns Stock

Luton 2, Cardiff 2

LUTON fans will not be surprised if manager Alec Stock concentrates on shooting practice this week, after his side squandered clear chances to win this match.

Stock said: "Our finishing was altogether too wild.

"We threw it away in a thoroughly unprofessional fashion. Cardiff had only three shots, and scored twice."

Just once did Luton's finishing spark, when Peter Anderson hit his seventh goal of the season. But Cardiff quickly levelled through Leighton Phillips.

With increasing frustration, Luton hurled everything at the packed Cardiff defence in the second-half, and seemed to have clinched victory when Don Givens converted a penalty fourteen minutes from the end.

Then the defence relaxed and Brian Clark headed another equaliser.
