

Super Millwall fight back

MILLWALL fought back brilliantly after being two goals behind.

They grabbed a point by out-footballing Luton.

Luton's fans' mightiest and longest cheer was given to Graham French, back in the League team for the first time after serving more than two years in prison.

He was the best man on the field at killing the ball, the best at tricking an opponent, the most perceptive at finding and using the open space.

In the lead

Luton went ahead after six minutes when Millwall goalkeeper Bryan King was lured well out of his area, could not secure a low cross by Peter Anderson, and new £50,000 centre forward Barry Butlin drove in a low shot that glanced off the defender for his second goal in two games.

Five minutes after half time, French scored. A long clearance from keeper Keith Barber was touched on by Butlin.

French controlled it beautifully, swept it swiftly ahead to a shallow funnel left by Millwall's defence, and stroked a lovely shot well clear of King.

The buzz had not died down when Millwall scored. Ex-Millwall player Alan Garner checked Alf Wood illegally, little Eamon Dunphy took the kick quickly, and Derek Possee dived low to head in.

Millwall's confidence grew, and midway through the second half their rally was rewarded when Doug Allder was brought down in the box. Gordon Bolland scored from the spot.
