

The conquering heroes

HEROES indeed. And last night more than 20,000 fans — the biggest league gate of the season — packed Kenilworth Road to salute Luton Town.

The last match of the season was a thriller — with the Hatters going down 3-4 to Sunderland. But it didn't really matter. They had already won promotion and for 90 minutes Luton's singing, chanting fans cheered their heroes.

And when the final whistle brought this memorable season to an end they poured on to the pitch.

They heard manager Harry Haslam tell them: "You're the best supporters in Britain."

And their own message to Mr Haslam and his players was heard all over town — you're the greatest.

It was a great night for the fans.
