

Aston's late face-saver

Soccer Picture Special

LUTON TOWN may be bottom of the First Division this morning but they have retained one important asset in their early season struggle — fighting spirit.

And that spirit was one of the main reasons why they saved a late point against Spurs

Our picture special captures those few happy moments for the Town

Bottom right: Referee Reeves signals a goal. Aston salutes it and Gordon Hindson and Brian Chambers are delighted.
