THE GOAL: Tony Currie, 58 minutes—but it looked like hands as he controlled it before scoring.

ENTERTAINMENT: Reasonable in the first half, but then fell away. All it needs is goals.

ATTENDANCE: 12,670. Probably the fans want goals as well.

BOOKINGS: Colquhoun of Sheffield, for a foul on Fern; John Faulkner, who now faces another suspension, for holding back Field by the shirt.

TOWN'S LEAGUE POSITION: Desperate—bottom, four points adrift of 19th place, the lowest survival spot.
