

By ROY BENTLEY
Luton 0, Sheffield U 1

IT WAS the biggest cheer ever heard for the arrival of a substitute at Kenilworth Road pitch.

It was as if the crowd believed a slim, fair-haired striker, just 18, could produce a miracle.

He could not—but Ron Futch, entering the fray after 60 minutes when Luton were a goal down, managed to give Sheffield United's brilliant goalkeeper Jim Brown one big fright.

LUTON'S TWIN HOPES

The pace may not be there yet, but he's not short on ability

Ron, makeweight part of a £120,000 transfer which took him and his twin brother Paul to Luton from Chester, said: "I was a bit whacked after that first half hour of First Division football. But I enjoyed it.

"Paul didn't see the game, and he is a bit sick that I have made the team before him.

"But his chance will come — very soon, I think."

MoM: Jim Brown
(Sheffield).