

MATCH DETAILS

BURNLEY 1, LUTON TOWN 0

Half-time: 1-0

TOWN: Horn, John Ryan, Buckley, Anderson, Faulkner, Paul Futcher, Jim Ryan, Husband, Ron Futcher, West, Aston. Substitute: King, not used.

BURNLEY: Stevenson, Ingham, Newton, Noble, Thomson, Rodaway, Brennan, Hankin, Fletcher, Collins, James. Substitute: Morris, not used.

THE GOAL: Ingham for Burnley, 34 minutes, after passing inter-change with Fletcher caught the Town defence too square.

ENTERTAINMENT: Pretty good. Spoiled for Town fans by the lack of goals.

ATTENDANCE: 17,209.

BOOKINGS: Alan West for a foul on Hankin; Ron Futcher, his fifth of the season, apparently for trying to compete with the goalkeeper in going up for a centre; John Faulkner, for an innocuous obstruction of James.

REFEREE: Kevin McNally, from Ellesmere Port: a busy little man, and his report on two of the bookings would be a laugh a line if the possible effects weren't so serious.

TOWN'S LEAGUE POSITION: Back on the bottom, and they need more luck to escape than they had at Turf Moor.
