Sheff Utd ... 1 Luton ... 1

SHEFFIELD UNITED,

who so casually let a 1-0 lead slip away, must realise the gap between First Division success and failure is so narrow that every point is valuable.

Struggling Luton have learned the hard way and refused to allow United to capitalise on winger Woodward's 28th minute oblique drive which gave Horn no possible chance.

In fact, they hit back so strongly that not only did the hard-working Anderson score a close-range equaliser in the 81st minute, but Sheffield were relieved to find themselves still drawing at the end.

Luton frequently moved faster to the ball and their first-time tackling upset United's rhythm.

Futcher held

They fully deserved their point—director Eric Morecambe thought they were worth two. Certainly, they worked together as a team and there could have been goals for Husband and West. Faulkner, apart from one error, was sound, giving Dearden few chances. Equally Colquhoun kept Ron Futcher tied up, though his brother Paul, newly called to the England Youth Squad made some useful contributions.

While it was all so disappointing for the home fans, Luton showed that a continuance of such determined and enterprising play could bring First Division survival.
