

MATCH DETAILS

QPR 2, LUTON TOWN 1

74/75

Half-time: 1-1

TOWN: Horn, John Ryan, Buckley, Faulkner, Paul Fitcher, Anderson. West, Jim Ryan, Alston, Ron Fitcher, Aston. Sub: King, not used.

RANGERS: Parkes, Clement, Gillard, Masson, McLintock, Webb, Thomas (Rogers, 63 minutes), Busby, Beck, Bowles, Givens.

THE GOALS: Don Givens for Rangers, 38 minutes, in goalmouth scramble after a free kick; Adrian Alston for the Town, one minute later, after passing interchange with John Aston; Don Rogers for Rangers, 83 minutes, well-flighted shot from edge of the penalty area.

REFEREE: Arthur Jones, Ormskirk: better than average.

ATENDANCE: 19,583, and the Luton voices kept shouting to the end.

ENTERTAINMENT: Not exactly sparkling—neither side looked brilliant.

TOWN'S LEAGUE POSITION: Very dodgy again: second from bottom, with time running out. But not quite hopeless yet.
