

THERE'S no doubt about it — Luton are back from the dead!

75/76 (FAC)

They made it seven wins on the trot by shattering Blackburn with a two-goal burst in five minutes of the second half.

It earned them a fourth round tie at Rochdale or Norwich — and the chance of a Cup jackpot to ease their cash crisis.

They began shakily, but Chambers kept providing the class in midfield and eventually it paid off. He had a fierce drive palmed out by Jones, and Roy Futchner had no trouble jabbing the ball into the net.

Five minutes later Chambers put the match beyond doubt when he hit a hard right-foot shot over Jones's hands.

From then on it was no contest.

Still, give credit to Blackburn. They came south in no mood to surrender, and they did not go out to make it a defensive bore.
