

LUTON manager Harry Haslam was "delighted" with his team.

"The tide is beginning to turn for us now," he said. "We are playing good football."

But only a Sunderland blunder put Luton on their way to victory. Moncur stretched to reach a shot by Husband and deflected the ball away from Montgomery.

Paul Futchler and West didn't put a foot wrong for Luton who clinched the match when Ron Futchler finished off a fine move began by Husband.

Husband was full of running and created havoc every time he had the ball—which was often.

Greenwood, a late sub, had an early half-chance to equalise when he turned and beat a defender, but his drive was a shade over the top.

Luton coach Roy McCrohan said: "It's up to the players now. We have South-
