

IN terms of technique the best ... Millwall football in memory is being played by the present young side under the guidance of Gordon Jago.

In just two years, Jago has educated Old Kent Road fans, as well across field to Lee who surtion of the finer points of the game.

It may take Millwall another year to become real challengers for the First Division but they are in the last eight of the League Cup and if they can overcome the low-par form away, Aston Villa would be well advised not to assume anything in that quarter-final.

There was enough incident and action at the Den yesterday to fill half a dozen matches. How long, one wonders, since there were three kick-offs within three minutes of the starting whistle?

After two minutes Luton captain West hit a 35-yard left foot dipper over Goddard and under the bar for a spectacular opening goal—his first time on the score sheet this season. Direct from the restart, Millwall went to the other end and there captain Kitchener equalised with a power-packed left foot cross shot.

Jago babes warn Villa

By ALBERT SEWELL

Millwall 4, Luton 2

Neither of those goals carried much build-up but there was plenty about number 3 which put Millwall ahead. Hazell passed well across field to Lee who survived a jostling run alongside Buckley—good refereeing this, to allow the advantage—and from the centre Brisley scored comfortably.

Walker was heavily involved at both ends. He gave away the penalty from which Buckley equalised (52 minutes), he headed wide of an open goal and then he touched Millwall into the lead off a post following a free kick headed on by 19-year-old newcomer Harris who made an encouraging debut.

In the closing seconds Seasman angled a glorious left foot shot across Barber to complete the defeat of his former club. Luton also suffered two bookings: centre half Jones and centre forward Futchler.

Millwall: Goddard, Evans, Donaldson, Brisley, Kitchener, Hazell, Lee, Seasman, Harris, Walker, Shanahan.

Luton: Barber, Price, Buckley, Chambers, Jones, P. Futchler, Husband (Sub.: Deanes 74 mins.), West, R. Futchler, Fuccillo, Aston.

● EQUALISER: Steve Buckley, the Town's penalty king, blasts home the second-half equaliser after Phil Walker had downed Lil Fuccillo to stop the Town's midfield man scoring. The Town went on to hold Millwall until 11 minutes from time, only to be beaten by two late goals.

76-7