ATTENDANCE: 10,380—biggest League attendance at The Den for nearly two months.

REFEREE: Tony Glasson, Salisbury: May have boobed when he booked Ron Fitcher, but otherwise had an impressive game.

ENTERTAINMENT: Good stuff, occasionally too frantic, with mistakes giving the home crowd what they wanted, Millwall's second consecutive 4-2 home win.

BOOKINGS: Graham Jones for a late tackle on Seasman; Ron Fitcher for calling his twin brother rude names and kicking the ball away—the ref thought the remarks were directed at a linesman.
