

HULLUVA RUMPUS AS LUTON WIN

By BRIAN WOOLNOUGH: Luton 2, Hull 1
HULL'S assistant-manager Andy Davidson was led off the field ranting and raving after Jimmy Husband had snatched a last-kick winner for Luton.

Davidson, who had been throwing abuse and V signs at the crowd, suddenly jumped to his feet behind the touch-line dugout.

ANDY DAVIDSON . . .
V-signs to fans

He stripped off his jacket as if he'd welcome a fight and was led off the field by a couple of policemen.

At one stage he stopped and tried to fight off the Men in Blue before being overpowered and led to the tunnel.

Three times during the match a colleague told him to be quiet and in the second half referee John Hunting spoke to Davidson as he ran on the pitch.

Stunned

Hull had whistled into the lead in the third minute when George Lyall met a cross with a first-time drive.

Then five minutes from the end, John Aston equalised with a superb goal which set Luton up for an extraordinary victory.

Seconds from the end, Fuccillo dribbled past three stunned Hull defenders and got in a shot.

Jeff Welands couldn't hang on to the ball and there was Husband to stab the ball over the line.

Soccer boss is marched off by the police

ALL ALONE! Luton forward Ron Futchler eludes the Hull defence, but still manages to head wide of goal at Kenilworth Road last night.
Picture: ROGER PARKER