76/77
LUTON TOWN 5, CARLISLE UTD 0

Half-time: 2-0

TOWN: Aleksic; Price, Buckley, Faulkner, Paul Futcher; Chambers, West, Fuccillo; Husband, Ron Futcher, Aston. Sub: Geddis, not needed.

CARLISLE: Ross; Carr, Bailey, MacDonald, Parker; Martin, Bonnyman (O'Neill, 69 mins), Tait, McCartney; McVitie, Rafferty.

THE GOALS: Lill Fuccillo, 19 mins, from through-pass by Paul Futcher; Ron Futcher, 39 mins, after neat flick-on by Jim Husband; Husband, 61 mins, goal of the match with quick control and shot from Ron Futcher's lay-off; Alan West, 75 mins, shot through a crowded penalty area; John Aston, 89 mins, ball screwed in from "impossible" angle on right wing.

ATTENDANCE: 11,735. Should make the Chief Constable happy.

ENTERTAINMENT: Five goals speak for themselves—and it could have been more, with Aston hitting a post, Ron Futcher having one disallowed for offside and Paul Futcher having a penalty saved.

REFEREE: Roger Kirkpatrick, Leicester, became part of the entertainment.

BOOKING: Phil Bonnyman of Carlisle, for a mis-timed tackle on Alan West.
