

SEVEN UP!

77/78.

LUTON 7 CHARLTON 1 By ERIC HARRIS

"EASY, EASY" chanted the Luton fans as the Town completely overwhelmed an overworked Charlton defence this afternoon.

The match was a personal triumph for Jimmy Husband who hit four goals in this remarkable game.

Two-up at half-time, Luton completely mesmerised Charlton with a display which was reminiscent of the excellent 3-1 League Cup victory at Wolves on Tuesday.

Charlton were completely destroyed by the ferocity of Luton's quick build-ups and the extent of their striking performance. But the visitors did manage to pull one back in the 82nd minute when FLANAGAN converted a penalty after Powell had been up-ended in the area by Paul Fitcher.

Apart from the Charlton penalty, Aleksic was not forced to make a derious save throughout the game, although there was little that he could do about the Charlton goal. Luton fully exploited the large gaps in Charlton's defence and the visitors were made to pay for several defensive mistakes.

It really was easy for Luton and, if they can reproduce this form throughout the season, the Town's fans are obviously going to be given excellent value for their money.

Final score: Luton 7 Charlton 1
