

LUTON LOOK SO CLASSY

77/78

LUTON have that First Division look. Their fourth consecutive win makes them No. 2 in the table.

The build-up, ideas and skilful touches provided by youngsters like Hill, Fuccillo and Paul Futchter indicate a great season ahead for this classy side.

"We put some great stuff together," said captain Alan West, his side's orchestrator in midfield.

Luton shots came from all angles and distances. One of them, from Fuccillo, whistled over the top from 40 yards.

In the first half hour Mitchell and young Mahoney caused Luton many problems.

And in the second half Evanson was only an inch away from converting an Evans free kick.

So in the end Luton grabbed the points because Faulkner "got fed up" with his job of staying at the back.

For a change he made a run from deep towards the near post when West drove the corner over. Then he met the cross clearly with a header that whistled past Evans on the line.
