

Frank robs Hatters

77/79

FRANK WORTHINGTON already seems to be Bolton's bargain buy. His 82nd minute winner was his fifth goal in six games and each has been worth a point.

Willie Morgan laid across a high centre from the left and the ex-England raider rose like a bird and headed over the keeper and in by the far post.

"It was a great climax to a thrilling game, but Luton manager Harry Haslam felt his fighting side deserved a point.

"Paul Futchler was outstanding in a magnificent defence and must surely soon get into the England reckoning," he declared.

His praise was well deserved, and Town certainly gave Bolton a shock. In the seventh minute full back Steve Buckley's shot seemed well covered, but Ron Futchler deflected it with his head and it spun into goal.

Chances

The Hatters had other chances but Wanderers were never daunted and might have equalised before half-time but for brave goalkeeping by Melija Aleksic.

But the keeper made a mistake early in the second half, when Willie Morgan crashed a shot so hard that Aleksic got his hands to it but let the ball through.

Man of the match: Paul Futchler (Luton).
