

HOT RETURN FOR BARBER AT LUTON

78/79

Luton ... 7, Cardiff ... 1

KEITH BARBER, once Luton's goalkeeper, made his first return visit to Kenilworth Road on Saturday and was deliged with goals by his old club.

Yet Barber—on loan to Cardiff from Swansea—could be proud of his own performance. He produced some great saves

Luton, the Second Division's highest scorers, pulverised a terrible Cardiff defence who were severely punished for their inability to cut out the threat of Bob Hatton's unselfish running.

Scouting mission

Cardiff manager Jimmy Andrews missed the match to watch a player. His assistant, Ken Whitfield, pulled off centre-half Pontin, who completely failed to get a grip on Hatton, but by then Cardiff were four down.

Moss and young Stein led Luton's goal bonanza with two each. Fuccillo (penalty), Hatton and Dwyer (own goal) completed Cardiff's misery. substitute Bishop's headed reply providing little compensation for a humiliating defeat.
