BEDFORD BUSINESS MEANS:

You need it,

A vehicle for every business.

You'll find Bedfords working in just about every business you can think of. That's because we offer a vast range of vehicles from light vans to heavy-duty trucks to keep the wheels of British industry turning. And, if you came to the match by coach, the chances are that also was a Bedford.

A dealer round every corner.

You'll find a Bedford dealer is never far away. He'll help you choose the vehicles that best suit vour business needs: he'll advise you on our special leasing, insurance and warranty schemes; and he'll maintain your Bedfords in peak condition throughout their long working life.

Because, giving our customers what they need, when they need it, is what Bedford business means.

Welcome to this evening's game. We must try and take the opportunity to improve our home results - it is at Kenilworth Road that we have missed the chance of closing on the leaders. But we are all still working hard and our efforts have been considerable. All we have sacrificed is a little quality, which is magnified if the side is not well balanced.

The 0-0 draw with Liverpool was splendid entertainment, whilst the 0-0 draw with QPR was dull and uninspiring. Spectators must realise, as indeed I must accept, that sometimes to create a foundation to win you have to work from basics. This can be foreign to your natural style and begins from the defensive area.

Solid defence is the springboard for attacking well — going forward while neglecting defensive duties is the recipe for the dole queue. This season, we have defended better as a team, but not attacked so well as a team. This is also very importantly due to individual's ability.

It has been quite amazing this season how many teams have changed course dramatically in mid-season. Injuries, loss of form, change of style can be several reasons. Everton's progress to a respectable League position and a League Cup Final appearance hinged on a last gasp undeserved equaliser at Oxford.

Bradford City had an appalling start and then an amazing run as did Walsall who lost one game 8-1 at Bolton. Our neighbour, Watford, have moved up impressively as have Leicester City. At the other end of the scale, consider West Bromwich and Coventry City, who have struggled to get results after a good start to the season, as have ourselves and today's visitors. Confidence is the most vital factor, and that gives the self belief that gains consistency.

keep shaking myself to remind me that the game was a friendly. If Bobby Robson cannot experiment, be allowed to lose, be allowed to make mistakes in such a game, we will never advance. The attention the game commanded and the importance that the result and performance warranted by critical media was quite staggering. How do you learn if you can't experiment?

I would like to see one game a month played privately against a League club. That way, the manager can work with his players uninhibited by others, and try to achieve the balance apparently lacking in Paris. So many people have told me that Brian Stein 'froze' on his debut - I have been quite shocked.

Not one of these people went to Paris. Could it have been the TV commentator who gave them this information after 10 minutes of the game? No one has asked me about the diamond shape yet. We, at Luton, all say 'Well done, Brian Stein and Paul Walsh', and make no mistake, if you show When England played France in Paris, I had to the quality at club level, week in, week out, chances will come again.

Enjoy tonight's game. The lads need all your backing — we are fighting to get back out of a difficult period. We have shown spirit without style. Let us hope we can get back on the winning path.

EUROPEAN BATTLE HOTS UP

By Tony Pullein

As we enter the final phase of the season all eyes are beginning to look at our chances of qualifying for next season's UEFA Cup. At the moment the situation looks bright for there is a possibility that the top eight clubs in the First Division will all qualify for Europe next season!

That, of course, depends upon a number of eventualities and the Milk Cup Final is the next major event that will have a bearing upon Europe. The winners of the Milk Cup automatically qualify for the UEFA Cup — unless they also go through to one of the other European competitions.

So, if Liverpool beat Everton in the Final and also win either the European Cup or the League Championship, they will instead participate in next season's European Cup

And Everton, if they happen to lose at Wembley, will NOT qualify for the UEFA Cup instead. A Football League spokesman confirmed that when he said. 'Under no circumstances do the runners-up in the Milk Cup go forward to the UEFA Cup,' he said. 'What happens then is that qualification reverts to League positions. The four highestplaced clubs in the First Division, who have not qualified for one of the other tournaments, will represent us in the

Our own European chances would probably be best served if Liverpool win the Milk Cup and the European Cup and for Nottingham Forest to win the League Champion-

TOUGH TIE

Then Liverpool and Forest would play in the European Champions' Cup leaving the four UEFA places open for other clubs.

Then, again, if Manchester United should win the European Cup-Winners' Cup, they would automatically participate in the same competition next season, instead of taking up one of those other European options. United, however, have a very tough quarter-final against Barcelona this month.

It would have been nice if Southampton had managed to go on to Wembley and win the FA Cup and also go into the Cup-Winners' Cup, freeing yet another UEFA Cup place.

If all those eventualities should have materialised then Liverpool, Nottingham Forest, Manchester United and Southampton - who all seem certain to finish among the top eight - would have qualified for the other two European tournaments, giving the other four places in the UEFA Cup to their best-placed rivals in the First Division.

The worst thing that could happen, from Luton's point of view, would be for Everton to win the Milk Cup, Liverpool the Championship and one of the rank outsiders to win the FA Cup. If Manchester United also failed to win the Cup-Winners' Cup, the UEFA places would then go to Everton and the clubs finishing second, third and fourth in the First Division.

Places in the UEFA Cup are allocated according to each country's results in all three competitions over the previous five years. This is calculated by awarding two points for a victory and one for a draw. Teams reaching the quarter-finals, semi-finals and Final are awarded a bonus of one point per round reached.

DIVIDED UP

The total is then divided by the number of clubs taking part to produce a coefficient.

England's coefficient is 34.426 which places us third in the European merit table for the past five seasons (not including the current campaign), behind West Germany and

The top three countries are permitted the maximum of four clubs in the UEFA Cup. Countries place between fourth and eight — Yugoslavia, Belgium, Scotland, Czechoslovakia and France — each get three entrants.

Those coming between ninth and 21st, including Italy,

USSR and Denmark, are allowed two clubs with the remainder getting only one chance. Wales and Liechtenstein, being the only two UEFA members without an acceptable national league, do not get any entries though, of course, the Welsh clubs can qualify through the Football League or by winning the Milk Cup.

The Champions' Cup is open only to the Champion club of each country plus the previous season's winners. So, if Liverpool win both the European Champions' Cup and the League Championship, they will be our only entry next

TWO ENTRANTS

Entries in the Cup-Winners' Cup are generally the winners of the national knock-out tournament. But if the same club has also won the League Championship, then the runnersup in the Cup Final are accepted into the CWC.

Then, again, the winners of the previous season's CWC also qualify so it is possible to have two entrants in this competition, too.

The maximum number of clubs any country can enjoy in Europe in one season is eight.

Everton are one of the clubs with an outstanding chance of returning to Europe next season and they continued their remarkable revival with a 4-4 draw at Watford where Adrian Heath scored a last-minute equaliser. Until Christmas the Toffees were one of the weakest attacking sides in the First Division. But, with Kevin Sheedy and Peter Reid hitting top form in midfield and Adrian Heath at last fulfilling all his early promise in attack, Everton are a vastly different team.

At the turn of the year, Everton had scored only 11 goals in 21 League games. Yet they netted 14 times in their next six League games and were beaten only once in their opening 15 League and Cup games of 1984. That reverse came in the second leg of the Milk Cup semi-final at Aston Villa (0-1) but, as they had carried forward a 2-0 lead from the Goodison Park leg, Everton still went through to meet Liverpool in the first all-Merseyside Final.

BOB LATCHFORD

Though that Final is being shown live on television on Sunday 25th March, the Football League is still confident that Wembley will be full.

Southampton are another side ambitious to get back into Europe. And the veteran striker Frank Worthington is hoping to help them do it. Frank's goal in the Saints' 3-0 win at Ipswich was his 198th in the Football League and he has been hoping to get the other two that will make him one of only two players, still appearing regularly in League football, to claim 200 or more goals.

The other, coincidentally, is former Southampton star Mike Channon, now with Norwich. Channon still holds the Southampton club record of 182 League goals.

Pop Robson, who leads the way among currently registered professionals with 261 League goals, is now Sunderland's first team coach but he has made the occasional appearance this season. And Bob Latchford, with 209 goals, was turning out for Swansea until they recently released him because they could no longer afford to pay his salary.

Aston Villa bounced back from the disappointment of their Milk Cup semi-final defeat by Everton to thrash Wolves 4-0 and relieve some of the pressure on manager Tony Barton. Villa's last hope of retrieving something this season is to finish high enough to qualify for next season's UEFA Cup.

But for Wolves, it looks almost certain that they will make a swift return to Division Two. Defeat at Villa left them 13 points behind the safety mark. That would take four victories and a draw even to close the gap - before making further progress up the table - and, as they had won only four times all season, that already seemed an impossible task.

MITCHELL THOMAS CAREER RECORD

Mitchell Thomas made headlines in many local and national papers after joining Luton under the Manpower Services scheme. He made such a big impression in his early days at Kenilworth Road that he was soon offered a contract.

A local boy, and only 19, he has all the attributes a full-back requires and made his League debut in the Milk Cup-tie at Charlton last season.

He also won England Youth team caps, and further evidence of his rapid progress is emphasised by the fact that his colleagues have nicknamed him 'Viv' because of his likeness to Nottingham

MARK WATTS

NORWICH CITY 6 LUTON TOWN 1 Eastern Junior Floodlight Cup

TEAM: Morgan, Davies, Devine, North, Cooke, Watts, Oldfield, Parker, Stein, McEvoy, Reynolds.

This was the most disappointing and biggest defeat in any of the three Cup competitions for many seasons.

At half-time with the score at 2-1 in their favour, we thought, on the evidence of the first half, we had a good chance to pull it back.

In the second half we did not show the spirit and determination needed to come from behind in a Cup-tie. As the game wore on, our resistance became less and less, and sometimes you have to forsake some of the finer points of the game to salvage some pride.

We had too many players who do not hold their pride in such high esteem and our feeble resistance allowed them to score four in the second half without the hint of a reply.

It was a sad night for all concerned and we shall have to get our heads up and fight back for our pride and future.

CHARLTON 4 LUTON TOWN 2 Football Combination

TEAM: Findlay, Breacker, Goodyear, Parker, Saxby, North S., Watts, Nwajiobi, Stein, Turner, Daniel. Sub: North M.

In a shell shocked opening minute we found ourselves a goal behind due to a delightful lob by our own Wayne Turner over keeper Jake Findlay.

Although collectively not playing well, Emeka Nwajiobi ended a fine run by hitting our equaliser only for Charlton to go ahead again from a free-kick.

Clive Goodyear then responded by getting our second; just before the interval with a vicious volley from 30 yards out.

The second half was end to end but Charlton again showed our weaknesses at dead ball situations by going ahead once again from a right-wing corner.

This time there was not a Town comeback and Charlton sealed the match from close range watched by our static defence.

LUTON TOWN 0 QPR 1 Football Combination

TEAM: Findlay, Breacker, North M., Parker, North S., Antic, Watts, Stein M., Aylott, Bunn, Moss. Sub: Davies.

Playing with two wingers — David Moss returning after a long injury — and young Mark Watts, we missed an early opportunity of going ahead when Gary Parker failed to convert a penalty when Frank Bunn was floored in the penalty area.

Stacey North then thought he had scored his first of the season only to be foiled by an offside decision. Things then started to go against us when Mark North collected an injury and Rangers began to play with confidence.

The better teamwork came from the visitors and it was with 15 minutes to go that Clive Allen, another player returning from a long injury, clinched the points with a header which gave Jake Findlay no chance.

The pleasing aspect of the game was that David Moss came through with no ill effects and delighted the spectators with some good wing play.

READERS LETTERS

Dear Sir, I would like to express, through the columns of your excellent magazine, my gratitude to current England manager Bobby Robson.

A large contingent of Luton fans, myself included, made the long trek to Southampton on 25th February by train from Waterloo.

Imagine our surprise on the return journey, when we were feeling slightly disappointed by the Town's performance, to see the England supremo on the same train.

Unlike many people in positions of power in our national game, Bobby seemed only too pleased to mingle with the fans, talking and joking with us and willing to sign autographs.

I am sure he made many new friends on the way back to London and he certainly impressed me with his eagerness to remain at grassroots level and not try to be aloof as do so many celebrities.

Here's wishing Bobby — and the England team, of course —

Dear Sir, On Saturday 18th February, my daughter Joanne was the mascot for the Luton game against Liverpool.

I would like to take this opportunity of thanking you and all your staff for making it a most memorable day, not only for Joanne, but for my wife and I. I do not think Joanne will ever forget the experience.

Thank you also for the Luton strip which she was allowed to keep which, by the way, we are having trouble getting her to take it off.

I must also thank the Luton Strikers for their encouragement to Joanne as they put her at ease when she was nervous.

She has been an ardent fan of Luton for two years and was the main reason I started to support Luton again.

Once again, thank you very much for making it such a great day for Joanne. I take this opportunity of wishing you the best of luck for the rest of the season.

Dear Mr Wilkinson, This is just a short line to say thank you for the welcome our reporter Ray Stubbs received when he covered your match against Liverpool.

Not for the first time, your staff succeeded in making a Radio Merseyside representative feel at home, and that makes our job a lot more enjoyable.

Thanks again, and all the best for the rest of the season.

MAD TO BE HATTERS!

Nearly 70 boys turned up at the Stopsley Regional Sports Centre in Luton for a knock-out competition to select six five-a-side teams to represent the Junior Hatters.

The Luton Town junior club has been challenged to a tournament at Coventry City ground, where they will meet six teams of Junior Sky Blues.

There will be three teams of Under-10s and three of Under-13s, and the boys taking part will have free seats to watch the Coventry-Luton tie, which will be played after their competition on 5th May, as well as a free buffet at the Sky Blues' restaurant.

CALLING IPSWICH FANS

The London Branch of the Ipswich Town Supporters Club serves London and the south-east. It provides members with regular newsletters, sporting and social events but, most important, cheap travel to matches.

Membership details may be obtained by writing to Bob Tebbitt, 5 Stempswood Way, Barnham, Bognor Regis, West Sussex PO22 20LA.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, KIRK

Full-back Kirk Stephens did not allow our recent defeat at Southampton to ruin his birthday celebrations.

As soon as the players arrived back in Luton from Hampshire, they joined Kirk in the Hatters Club for the party. Even if we say it ourselves, it seems like a piece of cake!

TONIGHT'S POP SPOT

Bill Young is our guest this evening in the pre-match Chiltern Radio Pop Spot. Bill, who presents the station's morning show between 9.30 am-12.45 pm, was our guest when we first introduced the Pop Spot for the match against Manchester United.

Since then, we hear that Bill has been converted into an ardent Luton fan and was responsible for reintroducing the Junior Hatters spot in Chiltern Radio's Saturday Kids Stuff programme.

MAN IN THE MIDDLE

Tonight's referee is Howard Taylor of Oadby, Leicestershire. He commenced refereeing in 1956 in local Leagues around Manchester and Stockport and progressed to the Cheshire League. Moved to Leicestershire in 1974 and continued via the Football Combinaan FA Cup quarter-final (1979), FA Cup semi-final replay (1980), and England v Bulgaria Under-21 international (1980). Also refereed a Midland Floodlit Cup Final (1980), and an FA Vase semi-final match (1982). A married man with two daughters,

He is also a referee training instructor in Leicestershire, and vicechairman and treasurer of Leicestershire Society of Referees.

OUR MAN ABOUT TOWN

The problem of how to remain active while attempting to make a comeback after a bad injury, has been partially solved by winger David Moss.

He has been training alone while preparing for his much awaited appearance in the Reserve side. In addition to that, he also took part in the Herald wedding show at Luton's Chiltern Hotel when he acted as a model.

It's a fair bet that not many Luton supporters have seen David wearing this type of strip before.

THELOCALTASTE AND HOW TO SATISFY IT

We're very definite about our taste in beer around here. A clear light pint is what we look for; with a good, clean smack of malt and hops.

And there's only one name that really satisfies the local taste - BB. The light beer first brewed in Luton during the darkest days of the War by J. W. Green

Only the finest hops and good, ripe barley go into the making. Then the brew is matured to exactly the right degree to give you a bright refreshing pint with a sound, full flavour.

American servicemen in local wartime bases declared that BB, chilled, was the nearest taste to Stateside draught.

It went down well when Svd Owen

And it's been going down well ever since. Because BB is brewed with a proper respect for quality. To keep up the traditions we value round here.

HATTERS WHO'S WHO

Mike Harrison is featured tonight in the continuation of Tony Pullein's feature on former Luton players.

Mike Harrison joined Luton in June 1968, shortly after we had won the Fourth Division Championship, to give the Hatters the stabling influence of his vast experience when we tackled the higher divisions.

He was, by then, approaching the end of his playing days and, though he was not always in the first team, he made his contribution towards the growth of the club and further promotion.

Apart from being an outstanding outside-left, Mike held a deep interest in Spiritualism. He didn't force his views upon others, though would go into deep discussion with anyone who held a genuine interest.

'I used to take a lot of ribbing from the lads in the dressing room,' smiled Mike. 'But I didn't let it worry me. It was a subject my father had introduced me to and, as I advanced in life, I found it improved my way of thinking.'

Mike was born in Ilford, Essex, and it was with the local schools' side that his footballing prowess was first recognised. He was picked for the England Schools XI and, inevitably, came under the scrutiny of all the major London clubs who had scouting networks in his area.

Eventually, he agreed to sign for Chelsea. After progressing through the Youth and Reserve teams, he got his chance in their First Division side in 1956-57. It took him some while before he won a regular place in Chelsea's senior side and it was towards the end of the 1960-61 season that his career really began to flourish.

OTHER WING

In March that year he was picked for the England Under-23 side against West Germany at Tottenham. 'Bobby Moore was playing behind me and I remember Terry Paine was on the other wing,' said Mike. 'And Budgy Byrne was our centre-forward. We won 4-1.'

The Under-23s, in fact, scored four goals in each of Mike's games for them. In February 1962 Mike scored twice in a 4-2 win over Scotland at Aberdeen, playing outside Jimmy Greaves. A month later he helped produce a 4-1 victory over the young Turkey side at Southampton.

Unfortunately for Mike, Bobby Charlton was at that time firmly entrenched in the number 11 shirt for the full England team and no one else got a look in. 'Of course it would have been an honour to play for England,' Mike said once during his Luton days. 'But Bobby was really at his peak at the time and no one could argue about that.'

Mike left Chelsea in September 1962 to sign for Blackburn Rovers. 'They were a successful First Division side at the time and usually finished in the top-half of the table,' he recalled. 'But we had one disastrous season and in 1966 we finished bottom of the table.'

He remained at Ewood Park until September 1967 when he made the long journey down to Plymouth to sign for Argyle. 'They were near to the foot of the Second Division at the time and we struggled throughout. In the end we finished bottom.

EXPERIENCED RELEGATION

'That was the third time I had experienced relegation. In 1962 Chelsea were relegated to the Second Division. Then came those drops with Blackburn and Plymouth. It was only after I had signed for Luton that I experienced a promotion campaign.'

Mike came to Kenilworth Road in June 1968 and the Hatters made a bold bid for promotion during his first season, finishing third in the days when only two clubs went up.

We made it the following season when we took runnersup spot but, by then, Mike's first team days were over. And he was released from his contract at the end of the season.

'I had had a good run and I derived much pleasure from those days as a player,' he revealed later. 'I really spent only the tail end of my playing career with Luton but the club was very much on the up-grade.

'They had dropped from the First to the Fourth Division and the club had been devastated. But they were then getting over it and I was pleased to have played a small part in the club's recovery.'

JOHN WILKINSON - CLUB SECRETARY

If ever a team has suffered through having to transfer its star players for whatever the reason, it must be our visitors today. Players of the calibre of Paul Mariner, Alan Brazil, Frans Thijssen, Arnold Muhren, Mick. Mills have all left the club within the last 12 months to take the heart right out of the side.

The young players who have now taken their places have a real job on their hands. If it is any consolation to them, my son Neil is still an ardent fan even if his favourite player has just joined Arsenal.

From my records I have picked out a game played between our two clubs on 5th November 1960, when in front of 11,221 spectators we won 3-2. The teams were LUTON: Standen, McNally, Bramwell, Pacey, Groves, McGuffie, Spencer, Ashworth, Turner, Brogan, Tracey. Goalscorers: Turner (2), Ashworth.

IPSWICH: Bailey, Carberry, Malcolm, Compton, Nelson, Elsworthy, Stephenson, Millward, Crawford, Phillips, Leadbetter. Goalscorer: Crawford (2).

I have just completed the dates for the local Cup Finals which are normally held at Kenilworth Road around this time of the season. For those interested they are: Monday 9th April Whitbread Final, Monday 16th April William Pease Final, Monday 30th April Solar Final, Tuesday 1st May Wallspan Southern Combination Final, Monday 14th May Chiltern Youth League Final. There is still one match outstanding at this time of writing and that is a Bedfordshire County Cup Final.

All matches will kick-off at 7.30 pm and admission is only 50p. Why not come along and watch these games. There is usually plenty of excitement and goals. In fact over the years the majority of these games have gone into extra time so you get even more for your money.

The outstanding Canon League fixture against Birmingham City has now been arranged for Tuesday 20th March kick-off 7.30 pm. The match, of course, is at St Andrew's.

MEMORY LANE

THIS WEEK:

TED PHILLIPS

One of the most prolific goalscorers of the post-war years, Ted made his debut for Ipswich in 1953-54 but it wasn't until two seasons later that he became a first team regular.

His ability to find the net was one of the main factors of the side, managed by Alf Ramsey, winning promotion from the Third Division South.

In all, he scored 160 goals in his 10 years at Portman Road and made 269 appearances. March 1964 saw him join Orient where he made 36 appearances and scored 17 times.

He joined Luton Town in February 1965 but made only 12 appearances, scoring eight goals. In September 1965 he joined Colchester United where he finished his League career. In his total career Ted scored nearly 200 League goals.

Today's Sponsor.

We would like to extend a warm welcome to our match sponsors tonight, ICI PLant Protection, who are the market leaders in the agricultural chemical industry, selling chemicals to solve farming problems of weeds, pests and diseases in crops.

The range of products offered by ICI, including such well known names in the agricultural sector as 'Gramoxone', 'Fusilade', 'Radar' and 'Aphox', are technically excellent and are backed by one of the largest sales forces in the industry. There is always an ICI representative close at hand to advise on any farming question.

Problems being currently encountered by local farmers are many - with the heavens emptying their contents over freshly cultivated fields, weeds are growing rapidly. A spray with 'Gramoxone' before drilling will make sure that cereal seedlings grow unhindered.

The oil seed rape crop is under attack at two fronts, firstly by grass weeds and volunteer cereals from the previous crop, and secondly by the cabbage stem flea beetle, an insect with a seemingly insatiable appetite for the oil seed rape plant.

ICI can help on both counts: 'Fusilade' can be sprayed on to the crop any time now to make sure those grass weeds are killed and 'Gamma-Col' is a very inexpensive insecticide to deal with the flea beetles.

For more information on any ICI product telephone Peterborough 313100 or Farnham (Surrey) 724525.

CLUB RECORD

The £250,000 fee paid to Millwall in January 1980 for O'Callaghan remains an Ipswich club record though at the time he was only signed as cover! What's more, he made only 15 full appearances for Millwall's League XI.

For more than two years he was virtually a Reserve at Portman Road but, following Under-21 honours, he still got into the Republic of Ireland side. He is now firmly established at international Wark has for some while been holding a place in the Scotland team, the East Germany match in November bringing him his 26th cap. England men Terry Butcher and Russell Osman function in the middle of the defence, normally with George Burley and Irvin Gernon in the full-back positions.

Butcher has been one of England's most consistent performers over the past two years and he now has 23 caps. Terry has been in the Ipswich side since 1978 and was earlier capped at Under-21 level.

Osman, who won his 11th cap against Denmark this season, was an instant success when making his Ipswich debut in 1977 and, after gaining England Under-21 honours, earned his full international call four seasons ago.

LUTON STRIKERS

The time leading up to the start of a match can be a boring experience for supporters — unless they happen to watch Luton Town at Kenilworth Road.

In addition to the Chiltern Radio Pop Spot which provides entertainment for the fans, we have the benefit of the Luton Strikers. But their appearance on the pitch could not be possible without the generous help of Brian Cole's Cleandustrial company who have sponsored the Strikers for us this season. We are extremely grateful for Mr Cole's involvement with the club and take this opportunity of thanking him for his valuable support. The Strikers are pictured here with Paul Elliott at a recent Kennings promotion and with a party of sponsors.
