HATTERS 3 CANARIES 1

Defensive team work by Town captain Steve Foster and Town's international star Mal Donaghy.

Fine ball control by Hatters' striker Brian Stein keeps the Canaries midfield caged.

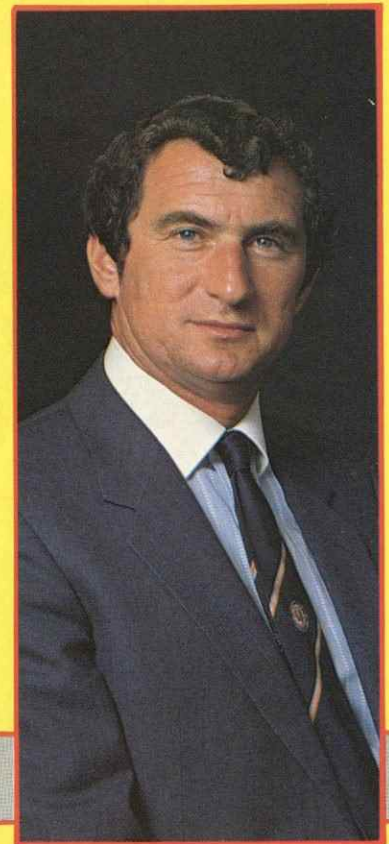

Welcome Forest. Welcome to all supporters of both clubs. Let us hope that tonight's game will be one to savour. The last time our lads met was at the Post House at Crick before we met Everton at Villa Park and Forest travelled to Highbury. It was a relaxed lunch time and Brian Clough was in good form. Today's meeting will be competitive as we both seek points for different reasons. Earlier in the season, we travelled to Forest on a Sunday and lost 3-1. I felt at the time this was more a reflection on some bad defending at vital moments and some even worse finishing, than with the greatest respect, Forest's good play. It is within our capabilities to prove this evening that we are good enough to beat Forest.

I would like to thank all the many people who have sent letters and cards since our FA Cup defeat by Everton. All the players thank you for your kindness — all we can do is get on with the job and make sure we will finish the season in style. That will be our best answer to remedy our disappointment. The wonderful thing about football is that you have no time to dwell on the bad days — life goes on, and we must all be optimistic.

stronger a good quality Youth system. As time goes on, only the Manchester Uniteds, Liverpools, Spurs and Evertons will be able to buy the outstanding quality players. We shall continue to produce our own. In the semi-final side, Mitchell Thomas, Tim Breacker, Wayne Turner, Gary Parker and Ricky Hill started with Luton from school, whilst Brian Stein and Mal Donaghy joined Luton as their first professional club. We are entitled to be proud of that. In the past, too, we have only bought players with money generated from sales. We shall continue to use this basic commonsense policy.

The major difference this season is that the newly constructed Board has given the club a breath of fresh air which was virtually needed. The finances that the chairman and his colleagues made available has helped give younger players confidence. People like Steve Foster, David Preece, Mick Harford and Peter Nicholas have been valued acquisitions, helping the young players to be less wary of the First Division scene.

Apart from myself and John Smith who have been co-opted on the Board, our chairman has introduced a further director to supplement the Board. Mr Mustafa Aleyan has been a long-

WELCOME

Our South East Counties team were rewarded for their successful season with their presentation before the Manchester United game. Their form has been outstanding and nine of the boys will be joining our ranks this summer. They are Ian Scott (Dunstable), Richard Harvey (Stevenage), Duncan Berry (Telford), Marvin Johnson (Aylesbury), Paul Lewis (Merthyr), John Kennedy (Swansea), Matthew Bowden (Mid-Glamorgan), Sean Farrell (Stevenage) and Aaron Tighe (Dublin).

Beneath this group we are pleased with the progress of several boys and we are more determined than ever to make distance supporter for some time, and in the last two seasons has joined our company for several games. We have warned him of all the trials and tribulations that he will now face, having invested in our club. It is down to myself, Trevor Hartley, all the staff and players, to make sure that we do well so Mustafa doesn't have too many sleepless nights. Whatever the future, he knows he is joining a friendly club with a unique atmosphere and is welcomed into the fold.

Remember this evening to get behind your team. Only 110 per cent will be good enough, and everyone is part of that effort. Whatever the result I hope I will exchange my annual pleasantries and discussions with Forest's famous Mr Clough, and the good people from his club, in Amsterdam at the Blauw Wit Tournament on 24th May.

Enjoy the game.

BEDFORD'S NEW MIDI.

BEDFORD
Now the driving force.

PETER SHREEVE

The talking point of last week was the news that Chelsea are installing electric fences at Stamford Bridge. There will be a single strand of wire, the type used to control cattle on farms. It will be above three strands of barbed wire 11ft from the ground. Chairman Ken Bates said 'we don't intend to keep on building higher and higher fences and we think this is the ultimate deterrent.' There have already been cries from people in higher circles saying that clubs weren't doing enough to deal with soccer hooligans.

It seems that football can't win, if certain fans want to behave like animals then they have to be treated like them. There is bound to be more views on this subject before the season is finished.

Ipswich Town caused the surprise of the day by winning 3-2 at White Hart Lane. They really rubbed salt into the wound inflicted by Arsenal on Spurs last week.

The Suffolk side went ahead after only five minutes through Alan Sunderland and went in at half-time full of confidence. Spurs young striker David Leworthy equalised in the 64th minute before Mark Brennan and Eric Gates penalty two minutes from time clinched the points for Ipswich. Leworthy scored another in the dying seconds but this defeat sees Tottenham 11 points adrift of Everton. After the match manager Peter Shreeves said 'Sometimes you see a boxer looking for the canvas and I felt there were a few in my team today doing the same. We were guilty of basic mistakes. I don't feel let down but feel perhaps players owe me something after two performances.'

Kerry Dixon's finishing snatched victory for Chelsea at the Hawthorns when he hit home a Pat Nevin cross in the second minute. Albion battled back after a Thomas penalty hit the bar and although they looked capable of equalising chances were squandered.

Steve Moran put Southampton on the winning trail by scoring after 17 minutes with a header and Armstrong who provided the cross for the first goal put the game behind Aston Villa's reach. Goalkeeper Spink did however save a 76th minute penalty. Manager Lawrie McMenemy revealed after the match that defender Mick Mills will be leaving Southampton at the end of the season. He said 'Mick wants to go into management while he can still play a bit. He is a man with wealth of experience and he has done nothing but good for this club since his arrival here from Ipswich. I will be sorry to see him to go.' McMenemy also added that Mills had nothing definite lined up at present.

SCENE ON ONE

Nottingham Forest kept alive their hope of a UEFA Cup place with two first-half goals that also pushed Coventry deeper into relegation trouble. Gary Mills and an own goal from Kenny Hibbett insured that Coventry were unable to improve the record of not winning at the City Ground since 1971.

Norwich City continued their run of defeats by losing at home to Leicester who incidentally with this win ended a run of five successive defeats. Alan Smith with two and Ian Banks well on target for City while Louie Donawa scored for Norwich. This defeat puts the Canaries deep into the relegation struggle.

Everton continued on course for the Championship by winning at Stoke. Sharp and Sheedy were the scorers. Stoke City have virtually no hope now of staying in the Division. Everton manager Howard Kendall is still not claiming the title yet. 'You can't be silly enough to start talking about Championships until it is mathematically impossible to be caught.' He went on to say 'It reduces our target if other teams slip but we are not taking anything for granted yet.'

A 29th minute goal from Roddy James made Queens Park Rangers First Division survival seem safe but made Arsenal UEFA Cup quest more difficult. The Gunners failed to show fight which defeated Spurs who will have to improve if European hopes are to be realised. Manager Don Howe admitted to being disappointed with his side's performance. He said 'We did not make chances. Making nine passes on the halfway line is not football. It was not negative. It was over elaboration.'

Rangers acting manager Frank Sibley said 'I was disappointed we didn't score more goals, I thought we outplayed them.'

Paul Goddard gave West Ham a First Division lifeline and plunged Sunderland further into relegation trouble. Goddard capitalised and missed Sunderland chances when he hit a strong 15 yard drive past keeper Turner. Liverpool took 45 minutes to shake off the semi-final blues but ended up comfortable winners over Newcastle by 3-1. John Wark scored the first after 58 minutes - 10 minutes later transfer seeking Gary Gillespie scored with a fine individual effort Paul Walsh got the third before MacDonald got his name on the scoresheet a minute later. A finger tip save by Bruce Grobbelaar brought the fans to their feet.

THE LOCAL TASTE AND HOW TO SATISFY IT

We're very definite about our taste in beer around here. A clear light pint is what we look for; with a good, clean smack of malt and hops.

And there's only one name that really satisfies the local taste — BB. The Light beer first brewed in Luton during the darkest days of the War by J. W. Green.

Only the finest hops and good, ripe barley go into the making. Then the brew is matured to exactly the right degree to give you a bright refreshing pint with a sound, full flavour.

American servicemen in local wartime bases declared that BB, chilled, was the nearest taste to Stateside draught.

It went down well when Syd Owen ruled the Hatters.

And it's been going down well ever since. Because BB is brewed with a proper respect for quality. To keep up the traditions we value round here.

POINTS OF VIEW

Dear Sir

I am an Everton fan and I organised a coach from Denbigh to the semi-final match at Villa Park. Three of us on the coach had tickets to sit with your club supporters; and I must congratulate your supporters for their behaviour.

Your team played very well and deserved to win a place in Wembley. When the final whistle went after extra-time, it was great to have your supporters coming up to my friends and to wish us all the best for the Final, to do this after losing in a semi-final, I felt very proud and I would like to thank them, for making it a great day for football. Lastly I would like to wish your club all the best for the future, and hope you get out of relegation and stay in the First Division.

Paul Andrew Jones, North Wales

Dear Sir

I was fortunate to be an Aston Villa steward in the Trinity Road enclosure for the semi-final against Everton.

I would just like to say that it was a privilege to help your supporters. They are a great credit to your club and to football in general.

Finally may I offer my regrets for losing the semi-final but I hope to see you all next season at Villa Park.

Thank you all for a day I will remember.

J. R. Birch, Solihull

Dear Bill and Mike

Would you please on behalf of all the Junior Hatters, parents, Sylvia and myself convey to Peter Nicholas our sincere thanks for his appearing at White Hart Lane on Sunday last.

I know Peter had to attend Kenilworth Road for treatment first thing on Sunday before he came to Spurs so I think it was highly commendable of him to spare the time to come and chat to the lads.

Also, if you do happen to be in touch with Tottenham could you also pass our thanks to the organisers of the Fun Day for the way they treated us and for the refreshments provided by them. It was also pleasing for the lads that not only Peter Shreeves but all the playing staff of Spurs seemed to pick the Junior Hatters out for special treatment spending a considerable time signing autographs and talking to them about the semi-final at Villa Park.

J. K. Smylie, Luton

Dear John

It gives me pleasure to compliment the club on the method adopted for the allocation of the FA Cup semi-final tickets. It is obviously fair that season ticket holders should take precedence and the voucher system gives regular supporters an opportunity to stake their claim.

The distribution of tickets to voucher holders the day after the Ipswich game was very orderly and relaxed, with plenty of good humour and football chats. My son Trevor, and I enjoyed the company and made some friends.

We are looking forward to Villa Park and wish all the players and supporters an enjoyable day — whatever the score!

Howard Long, Milton Keynes

Saturday 9th March 1985
South East Counties League
READING 2 LUTON TOWN 2

This game was played on a very large, dried out mud pitch making it very difficult to achieve cohesive passing movements, especially as we were without Ian Scott, Arron Tighe and Kingsley Black on Reserve duty.

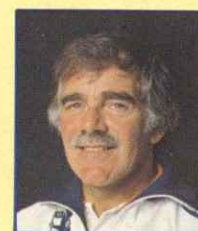

We started with a slight breeze in our favour and after 20 minutes Sean Farrell put us ahead finishing a move set up by Richard Harvey, Matthew Bowden and Paul Lewis. Further chances were missed to increase our lead and in the second-half Reading began a gradual wearing down process and eventually led 2-1 with 15 minutes left.

Our unbeaten away record was threatened but Richard Harvey came to our rescue by pushing on into midfield and with a glorious run and centre providing the opportunity for Sean Farrell to score a brilliant opportunist equaliser.

Saturday 16th March 1985
South East Counties League
LUTON TOWN 0 SOUTHEND UNITED 0

This was our first opportunity to win the Championship and our nerves showed throughout a first-half littered with mis-placed passes, poor control and several players trying to do too much individually. A classic example of trying too hard.

In the second-half, with more composure, we gradually got into a decent passing rhythm and with Jonathan Bone and Marcus Tuite raiding down the right and Richard Harvey and Kingsley Black on the other flank, chances were made. Sean Farrell, showing excellent control and positioning, somehow couldn't get his usually lethal finishing on target and the last 10 minutes was a series of goalmouth incidents culminating with Kingsley Black hitting the post with a diving header.

Sometimes you have to learn that you can't always have what you most want even though you try desperately hard to achieve it.

Friday 12th April 1985
Football Combination
LUTON TOWN 1 WATFORD 1

In the first-half, kicking towards Oak Road end we had the better of the play and seemed bright and inventive in our attacking ideas. After some near misses we took the lead in the 18th minute, when Mark Stein hit a brilliant volley over their keeper from all of 25 yards.

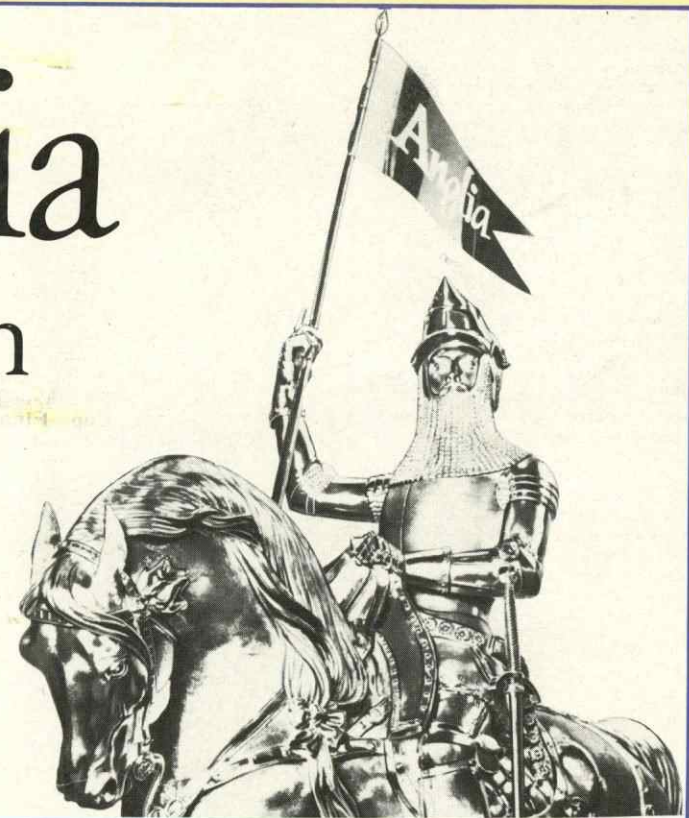

Watford always fight back and they started to increase the pressure on our defence, but we held firm with Ashley Grimes and Peter Nicholas holding our back line and scoresheet intact until half-time. HT: 1-0.

In the second-half it was a different story as Watford found the energy to pin us back in our half and it was only a question of time before they scored. When the equaliser did arrive it was a tragedy for Peter Nicholas, who had the final touch on the ball to concede an own goal. After this there only looked one winner, as we failed to support our forwards quick enough and never extended their defence. Whereas at times ours was stretched to the limit but did well to hold out without losing any more goals.

Overall a tired performance, when our younger players looked like they were feeling the effects of a long first season for most of them.

NOTTINGHAM FOREST

Brian Clough has insisted all season that his Forest side has not quite got what it takes to win the title but if they can earn a place in next season's UEFA Cup, then their manager will probably be well satisfied because it has not been the easiest of seasons on Trentside with Forest undergoing something of a transition.

Put out the FA Cup in a fourth round replay by Second Division Wimbledon, Forest faced a long run-in to the end of the season with really only that UEFA Cup place to aim at.

But typically, when you look at their manager's fighting qualities, they've produced some useful results to maintain their claims for a European place which will be decided in the next few weeks.

Forest, of course, should have been Town's visitors back in mid-January. The bad weather put paid to that date which would have coincided almost 10 years to the day with Clough's arrival at the City Ground.

In that decade, Forest developed from a Second Division side into twice European Cup winners and it says much for their manager's ability that he has maintained Forest as a power despite changes to their line-up over the last few seasons.

Apart from making sure of European football at the City Ground next season, Forest's other target over the remainder of the season is to keep star striker Peter Davenport at the club. Davenport, a Merseysider who cost the club the price of a bottle of whisky when they signed him from non-League football, has emerged as a quality front runner who made his England debut as substitute in the recent game with Eire at Wembley.

His contract runs out at the end of the season and there's been plenty of speculation about his future.

Davenport's partner in recent weeks has been another ex-non-League player who Forest developed into an England striker, Gary Birtles although another in a long line of injuries threatened to keep Birtles out over the final weeks of the season.

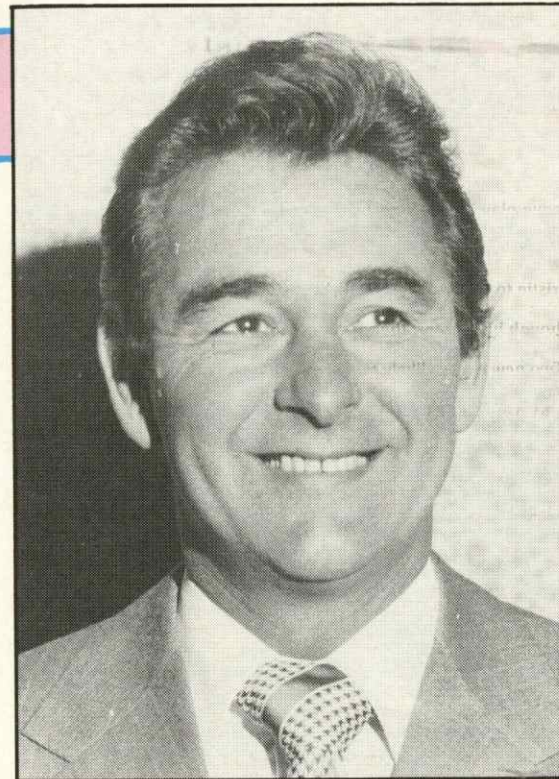

The Birtles-Davenport partnership enabled Forest to release Trevor Christie to Derby County in February. Christie, a prolific scorer last season for Notts County had struggled to find his form with Forest although he did start the season with a hat-trick in a 5-0 away win at Aston Villa.

Two new names likely to be in the Forest line-up tonight from the side that played at Kenilworth Road last season are goalkeeper Hans Segers and Scottish full-back Jim McInally. Both joined the club last summer. Segers from PSV Eindhoven, McInally from Celtic and after starting off the season in the Reserves, both have emerged in recent months.

Former Chelsea and Villa defender Kenny Swain has been partnering McInally at full-back although earlier in the season, Australian Alan Davidson was given his chance in the number two shirt.

Chris Fairclough, who broke through last season as an outstanding central-defender, plays alongside ex-Leeds man Paul Hart in the middle of the back four while skipper Ian Bowyer continues to give Forest splendid service in midfield and is one of the few survivors in the side from the club's successful European Cup campaigns in 1979 and 1980.

Another Dutchman, Johnny Metgod, has a big influence on the side from the middle of the park. Formerly with AZ 67 in Holland and then Real Madrid, Metgod has turned in some impressive performances this season and come up with some useful goals, probably none more so than the one that clinched a fighting comeback in a home game with Manchester United when Forest ran out 3-2 winners after trailing.

Winger Steve Wigley forced his way into the side last season and wearing the number 11 shirt is usually Steve Hodge, an England Under-21 player.

Among youngsters challenging for first team places are Paul Raynor, recently given a new contract after making four first team appearances and a striker with a familiar surname, Nigel Clough, son of the manager, who made his League debut in the home game with Ipswich at Christmas.

Apart from Christie, one other expensive summer signing has moved on from the City Ground this season, midfielder Gary Megson who joined Newcastle without playing a first team game at the City Ground.

As the League table stood last week, Forest needed to make up a few points to catch their fellow European challengers, notably Arsenal and Southampton.

They had won five away games and drawn three since the season kicked-off and tonight they'll be hoping to complete a double over Town. Back in September, Luton went down 3-1 at the City Ground in a Sunday afternoon game.

JOHN WILKINSON

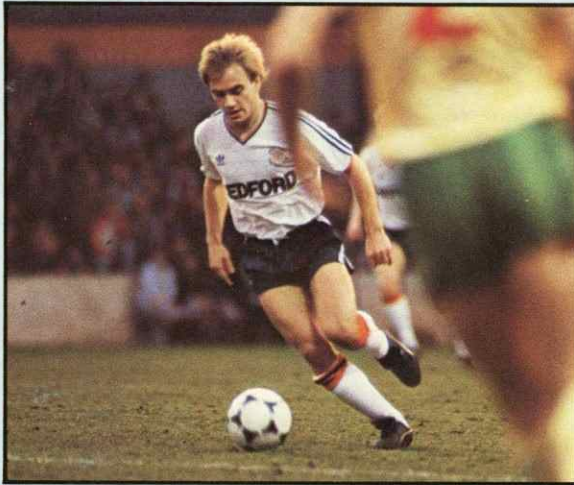

The Town continued their fight to climb the table by beating Norwich City at Kenilworth Road. After the defeat by Everton in the FA Cup semi-final it was understandable that they started very cautiously and Norwich made the most of attacking the Town's defence by taking the lead. Mike Channon was left unmarked at the far post and he netted his 11th goal of the season.

Whatever was said at half-time worked wonders as the Town pulled themselves together and started to play the football that has become their trademark. David Moss, in the side deputising for the injured Harford, set the ball rolling when he crossed a perfect pass to Emeka Nwajiobi who headed in at the far post. He then scored from the penalty spot after a challenge from Watson on Stein was thought to be unfair. This decision brought about a strong protest from the City players and four of their defence were booked by the referee. In the dying minutes of the match Nwajiobi scored his second goal to put the game well beyond City's reach.

The crowd was again disappointing after the large numbers that travelled to Villa Park and one supporter gave Steve Foster a bouquet of flowers which I am sure made him feel a little embarrassed.

Norwich's Mark Barham clears the ball, under pressure from David Preece with David Moss in support.

Two goals from Emeka Nwajiobi secures three important points for the Town.

LUTON AND NORWICH MAN OF THE MATCH AWARDS

First team coach Trevor Hartley was only too pleased to hand over our sponsors Man of the Match awards last Tuesday night against Norwich. When it's down to you and the team manager to lift the players three days after the cruel result at Villa

Park. It is nice to see your efforts pay off with three important points on the night. Our picture shows Trevor with Peter Nicholas and Louie Donowa receiving their Man of the Match Awards.

AN EXPERT TOUCH

Stan Everritt our Youth team physiotherapist is one of a number of hard working officials involved behind the scenes, and played a major part in the Youth team's success this season. Stan is pictured cleaning a cut on Mal Donaghy's head after the Norwich City match.

PHOTOGRAPHS - READY IN A FLASH

Two important guests of Leighton Homes captured by our club photographer Gareth Owen at the Norwich match sponsorship were Kim and Philip Gudgeon. Kim and Philip are admiring their photograph which is taken and produced by Gareth

Owen Photography in a matter of hours to enable each guest at a sponsorship to take away their own personal copy.

IN THE FASHION

Not to be outdone by our captain Steve Foster, our mascot for the Norwich game Allan Randall donned his headband for his big moment when he led the team out. Allan is pictured with Steve and Norwich captain Dave Watson.

YOU'LL NEVER WALK ALONE

We've received many compliments from supporters on the condition of our pitch this season. The man responsible for keeping the pitch in it's mint condition Dick Wassell is seen at half-time at the Norwich match ready to replace the divots.

BRIAN CHAMBERS

Although Brian was born in Newcastle, it was at Sunderland where he started his career. Coming through the ranks to become a regular first team player. His talent was noticed in the marble halls at Highbury and he joined the Gunners in June 1973. Things didn't work out for him there and in the twelve months he was at Highbury he made only one League appearance before moving on to Luton in February 1974, he immediately became a member of the first team squad and a favourite with the fans. In all he made 73 appearances in the three years he spent at Luton and scored nine goals. July 1977 saw him join Millwall where he spent eighteen months making 54 appearances and scoring nine goals. His next move was to Bournemouth and then to Halifax where he finished his football League career. Brian now works for the Legal & General Assurance Company and is player coach to Poole Town where he is passing on his skills to their young players.

STAPLETON WINS UNITED £1,000

Frank Stapleton's goal against Liverpool at Anfield on Sunday did more than boost Manchester United's challenge for the Canon League Championship. It also clinched the £1,000 First Division Canon Goalscoring Award for the Old Trafford club.

Manchester United netted 10 goals in Canon League matches in March, one more than nearest rivals Leicester.

Carlisle, with 12 goals in six matches, found their scoring form to earn the Second Division £750.

Hull and Walsall both scored 15 Third Division goals. But because they achieved that total in seven matches against Walsall's eight, Hull took the £500 prize.

Scunthorpe were runaway winners of the Fourth Division's £250 award. Their 21 goals were six more than runners-up Crewe.

The chase for the Canon seasonal awards is gathering momentum, not surprisingly since the held-over cash from the weather-ruined January and February competitions has been added to the seasonal awards, making them worth: First Division £8,500; Second Division £6,500; Third Division £4,500; and Fourth Division £2,500 respectively.
