

● PRESSING: Mick Harford leads another aerial attack. Not until after the match was it known that the centre-forward was playing through pain from a knee injury. He needed a pain-killing injection before kick-off, and Crystal Palace volunteered their club doctor to administer it.