EVERYTHING YOU LIKE HERE.

No-one can deny the huge success of the Astra Van.

Now the new Astramax can only add to the popularity of the range, while adding to the discomfort of competitors (but certainly not of drivers).

The Astra Van is well-known for the best 'office' set-up and for the best handling and performance in its class. Same difference for Astramax.

Drivers can take comfort, too, from the Astramax (and Astra Van) being equipped with a proper bulkhead. Unlike some other vans.

The slippery smooth shape is more than a modern front for business. The Cd factor is a low 0.34.

While at the business-end, twin rear doors open to a 90° stop. Or a full 180°, handy for loading bays. And for taking on a choice of 365 or 560 kg payloads in the huge 82 cu. ft. load-space.

For even more load-space, optional with the Astramax, is an extended load-deck in place of the passenger seat.

On the small side, fuel consumption and all the running costs. Whatever your choice from three petrol engines or a diesel, with 4-speed, 5-speed or automatic gearboxes (according to engine).

To end with the finish, the corrosion-protection and paint process is the most-up-to-date in Europe.

As for the Astramax's price, it's attractive enough to save you the bother of shopping around.

100 Years On

Welcome to everyone for another Cup-tie with our friends from the Arsenal. After the enforced weather break, football is breathing life again and there is never a better occasion than a magical FA Cup game.

I was delighted with our determination and attitude on Monday evening in most difficult conditions. We are obviously not going to give up easily the chance of Cup progress. In view of the fact that three established forwards were missing we never conceded to the talented Arsenal team. Our supporters were superb and on behalf of all the players, I can only say, keep right behind the lads. We appreciate your cheers.

Brian Stein has almost discarded his crutches. Emeka Nwajiobi entered hospital yesterday for an exploratory operation of his injured foot. Mark Stein has been recalled from a loan spell at Aldershot. Ricky McEvoy missed an Eire Youth Cup against England last week through injury. Marcus Tuite, his midfield partner won another cap in that game. Mal Donaghy was brilliantly balanced in Paris last week. Mike Newell was upset his "goal" against Sheffield Wednesday was ruled out. Mitchell Thomas has been selected for England under-21s against Denmark next week. Peter Nicholas and Ricky Hill were both away last week on international duty. Rob Johnson was 24 last week.

When games come thick and fast after postponements, all clubs will be stretched on playing resources. The importance of good coaching staff and medical people cannot be underestimated. They have to "carefully train" players through those periods and have to know the players who can cope with the strain and their individual reactions to niggles and strains. Fresh legs and minds are vital as teams run in to the crucial end of season.

Regardless of Cup-tie involvement, our pleasure last Saturday was considerable. In beating Sheffield Wednesday, we have achieved the 50 points objective. We have gained those points at an earlier stage than any previous First Division season. As we sit in our summer deckchairs, we dream of 50 points—I am delighted to be conceited enough to tell all our supporters who have learnt never to take anything for granted. WE ARE IN THE FIRST DIVISION NEXT SEASON—and with our artificial pitch!

GirlTalk

Why don't more women go to football matches? Is it that football's a "male sport" as so many men would have it? Or is it more complex than that? The women who do go obviously enjoy the atmosphere, and are as knowledgeable about the game as the men. Is it that the image of the sport is predominantly masculine? The players, team managers and directors are generally male. Some clubs, however, are trying to promote a feminine face with the introduction of female stewards, pre-match entertainment and even female executives. Luton are among the pioneers.

Families

Perhaps it's family commitments that keep many women from football matches. Small children clearly won't appreciate 90 minutes of football; parents are thus unwilling to buy them season tickets. Mothers usually have to stay at home to look after toddlers while dad and older children go to the match. Clubs could possibly provide incentives for parents to bring small children to matches, or at least make it easier for mums to come. That is, of course, assuming that football does genuinely want to encourage women and that "family enclosures" and so on that we read about are not just gimmicks to attract media (and female) attention to increase overall support. It wasn't too long ago that Glasgow Rangers proudly announced its new "family" incentive—a reduced price for a father-and-son ticket!

Of course some of these enclosures do work; and the benefit of the family atmosphere is felt all round the ground. At Watford in November I saw two boys, aged about eight, sitting happily together chatting about the game. One was dressed in Watford's colours, the other in Luton's.

Football is changing; those involved at all levels need to think radically about it, not paper over the cracks, if it is to grow healthily. I believe that women have a great deal to offer the game both as supporters and at a more professional level.

Fab Luton Strikers

On behalf of the "Laughing Cavaliers" Vauxhall Motors, I should like to thank the Luton Strikers for entertaining our local handicapped friends at the disco we arranged for them. The evening was made a big success by their performances and kindness to our young friends—many who are Luton Town fans. Once again thank you Luton Strikers you were fab and did an excellent public relations job for Luton Town FC.

G. Berresford,
Chairman,
The Laughing Cavaliers

Fantastic

Dear Sir,
I doubt you shall print this but here goes. I would like to applaud Luton Town for "BRILL" performances against good sides Notts Forest, Man Utd, and West Ham which I thought was the best. I went to Luton with Stony Stratford FC with many West Ham supporters to see Luton and West Ham and I can tell you them few fans were thrilled with Luton's fantastic team work and play "Very well done Luton Town".

Robert Wise,
Milton Keynes

Much-improved away form

Dear Sir,
"Nice one Luton", several brilliant away performances by "the Hatters" mean that the team has redeemed itself for that "below par" showing in their home match against Coventry. Yes, their away performances this season are a great deal more solid and convincing and must be a pointer to a good placing on the final league table.

At Kenilworth Road we see an even run of the ball, resulting in good attractive, skilful football.

Earlier in the season our team struggled to reproduce that factor away from home on the conventional grass pitches. In the matches at White Hart Lane and Vicarage Road, the team played almost as fluently on wet slippery surfaces, to show that we now do have the "muscle" as well as the ability. Heavy pitches are often a footballing sides undoing, but Mr. Pleat's team are showing signs that we won't buckle this term.

The only disappointing aspect of our recent matches has been the abusive chants from the Luton supporters at their opponents. Come on lads! The backing you give the team is tremendous, but lets make it a friendly atmosphere at our games. Mums, dads, kids and grandparents want to enjoy good "banter" atmosphere—not sickening, pathetic chants. Let's get witty Oak Road end! Humour will make everyone laugh—even the opposition when we take another three points off them!

G. Evans

Handshake

Dear Sir,
May I, on behalf of Supporters United thank you for your help and consideration in bringing about the handshake at Luton Town FC earlier this season.

The help shown by Luton Town and staff was first class, and made the whole event most enjoyable.

Once again please pass our thanks onto your staff.

B. Wagstaff

Birthday special

Dear sir,
Thank you for arranging a special surprise for my birthday. I really like your two brilliant forwards coming in and having my photograph taken with them. My friends enjoyed it too, and I'm glad you won.

James Lindner,
Luton

Unprintable?

Dear Sir,
I doubt very much whether you will print this letter in the mailbag column as it seems to be a smug exercise in self-congratulations and glowing praise for the club. My letter contains what I consider to be constructive criticism and should be printed if mailbag claims to be a representative organ for supporters.

My moan is directed against the guilty man who was responsible for the outrageous 100% price rise of the programme. The new look programme is a good read, well presented and contains a wide variety of interesting features ie. the reserves and youth team pages, All Our Yesterdays and Girltalk, which presents a much-needed feminine view on the club. However, there is no justification in charging £1.00 for it.

It is the most costly programme in the entire football league, 40 pence more expensive than its nearest rivals. I think that the club is guilty of exploitation and greed by charging such a sum.

The yardstick for the £1.00 programme was set by the excellent 1985 Cup Final edition. The Town's effort is simply not in the same class. So come on Luton, play the game and reduce the price to a more realistic level to provide value for money and stop conning your loyal supporters.

M. D. Craig, Luton.

Editor: Thank you for your comments. The programme justifies itself, we hope, and its cover price. What do other fans think?

Luton Town 1 Sheffield Wed 0
A Mick Harford header after 16 minutes proved to be the winner in a match of limited entertainment against a dour and muscular Sheffield Wednesday at Kenilworth Road last Saturday.

Harford, playing with his customary vim and skill, rose startlingly high at the far post from David Preece's corner to send a towering header past Martin Hodge, the Wednesday goalkeeper, and give the Hatters a first league win over the Owls since 1980-81.

Snow cleared

The pitch, which had been cleared of 130 tons of snow, played as superbly as ever but could do nothing to insist that the visitors should play with the same open style as the hosts.

As a result, there was less goalmouth action or fluent play than usual. Mike Newell, again demonstrating his energy and enthusiasm, played well and kept the Wednesday defence busy and Steve Foster earned plaudits again for a good containing job against the muscular and difficult Garry Thompson.

For Wednesday, Gary Megson performed with his usual intelligence and it was from his accurate left-foot shot five minutes from time that Les Sealey was forced to make his most telling contribution of the day.

Luton: Sealey, Johnson, Thomas, Nicholas, Foster, Donaghy, Hill, Newell, Harford, North, Preece.

Sheffield Wednesday: Hodge, Sterland, Morris, Hart, Shirtliff, Smith, Marwood, Megson, Thompson, Shelton (sub Shutt 73 mins), Snodin.

MAL DONAGHY

VIEWS

from the bench

Defender Mal Donaghy travelled to represent Northern Ireland last week when they secured an excellent 0—0 draw against European Champions France at the Parc des Princes in Paris—and once again he received little recognition for his part in a fine performance. Where Mal is concerned, consistency and reliability are passwords for a low profile in public. Today Mal, who will be appearing in his second successive World Cup finals series, talks about Northern Ireland and their chances in Mexico.

"It was my third experience of playing for Northern Ireland against France but the first time I had been in a team which kept a clean sheet. On the last two occasions we met, we were beaten 4—0 and 4—1, just before and then during the finals in Spain in 1982.

"However, we now have strung together seven clean sheets. In fact, we have not conceded a goal at all since we allowed Mark Hateley to nick one for England in Belfast. That was in February 1985, I think. So it is not a bad record, is it?

"Of course, we have had a bit of luck to do that. But you need some luck. Against France, we did well. I played left-back and we all did our best. I always try to keep my international football and my club football apart as two separate things. That way seems to work alright.

Brilliant Platini

"France impressed me. They are a very, very good side. Don't be fooled by the result against us—they will be as big a threat to everyone in Mexico as everyone expects. And so will we! Platini of course is a great player. He was outstanding against us and was easily the man of the match. He is the best player I have seen anywhere at all for a long, long time.

"Conditions were not very good at all, but he looked just great. The French lads all wore gloves and tights for the match which I thought was a bit, well different you know. A bit strange. But it made no difference for us . . . although I came home with a severely bruised back-side from one challenge which left me bouncing a very sore behind on a very hard pitch.

"We had a chance to do a bit of tourism in Paris while we were there on the Tuesday. We were staying in a hotel very near to the Eiffel Tower and of course we had a good look at that and also did a bit of shopping. Mind you the prices were ridiculous. Very steep. We didn't spend much, I can tell you!

Algeria no mugs

"Looking ahead to the finals, I think it is vital for Northern Ireland to get a result against Algeria and make a good start in our first match. It will be crucial. But it is no good thinking it will be easy. Algeria are no mugs and Emeka, who has seen them play, has been telling me about them a bit.

"Of course we also have to face Brazil and Spain. And nobody needs telling that they will be tough matches. But we do have a habit of doing quite well against the so-called top teams in the world."

TOP HATTER

Born in Luton on December 12th, 1964, Ray has made fine progress through the ranks from the local schoolboys team and youth side to the First Division of the Canon League. He is a very skilful player and particularly strong on his left foot. His speed is also a great asset. He signed as an apprentice in 1982 and as a full professional 15 months later. He made his debut at Manchester United in May 1983 and is now pressing hard for a first team spot.

FAMILY MAN

Midfielder Ray Daniel found new pleasure in life last year when his first child Nathan was born. Now four months old, the boy has become the apple of his father and mother Patricia's eyes and now enchants them said Ray with his smiling and screaming!

"I like to go home and be with my family more than anything else," said Ray when asked what he likes doing best away from the professional game. "I'm not a great sportsman although I do play a bit of snooker with the lads. That's just now and then though."

Ray is knocking on the door of the first team these days, but finding it difficult to break through because we have a settled side. An injury last season, which led to the removal of a lateral cartilage in a knee, held him back, but he has plenty of good memories in the game already at the age of 21.

First goal

"My most memorable game was at Stoke City when we won 4-2 away in December 1983. I scored my first goal for the club and Paul Walsh scored a hat-trick—it was also my 18th birthday."

Ray hopes to have a career in the game as a coach when he finishes playing. He has coached youngsters at the Wigmore Athletic and 61 FC clubs. But now his time is taken up with his own youngster.

"He shouts a lot now. But he is great. I am quite adept at home life—I like watching a lot of television but I also do quite a bit of cooking and so on around the house. Nathan used to wake up every two hours but now he is a good boy and sleeps right round the clock at night."

A WEEK OF WORRY, HEADACHES AND TREMENDOUS SUCCESS

by Bill Tomlins

Pass the Aspirin—it has been one of those weeks. What with the tremendous interest in the pitch and our new executive boxes and now a week of extraordinary ticket and match-day arrangements, all our club staff are both punch-drunk with the work, and delighted with the club's continuing success.

The possibilities of what could or could not have happened this week have made for a quite dramatic life behind the commercial scenes at Kenilworth Road—not least for such items as match-day arrangements, sponsorship and the production of the programme.

COMPLEX

Let me give you an example. On Monday morning, it was not at all clear if or how many home matches we would have this week. Owing to the complexities of the FA Cup, we could have ended up playing two or none!

Obviously a draw at Highbury meant a replay. But where? A toss of a coin job of course like last year with Watford when Wayne Turner ended all the drama on his 24th birthday.

A defeat meant the end of the cup—but what of the league. If Watford failed to go through or were continually postponed, Liverpool would have had a day off . . . and, theoretically, might have wished to get rid of their outstanding fixture here. It would have been a mighty short notice of course. It all meant more headaches for everyone concerned.

DEBATE

So, thank goodness, we don't have winter all the year round . . . which brings me on to the debate over synthetic pitches as discussed by John Smith on page 25. As you will have read in the papers, it is said a group of league clubs are not in favour of synthetic pitches—but as far as I know most players are. And the commercial benefits are obvious to everyone!

WELCOME BOB

New boy: Bob Bolder recently joined us on a month's loan from Sunderland. We wish him well and hope he enjoys his stay at Kenilworth Road.

MAN OF THE MATCH—MITCHELL THOMAS

All smiles: Town fan and TV-AM presenter, Nick Owen was a guest at QPR recently where he presented our own Mitchell Thomas and Rangers' Steve Wicks with man-of-the-match awards.

● On the lookout: New closed circuit television cameras have recently been installed around the ground. I'm hoping we never have to use them as evidence in case of trouble.

● Youngsters: Chiltern Radio's Paul McKenna chats to some of our young fans at a recent home game. Paul and Chiltern's involvement with our Junior Hatters has been a huge success.

CAPTAIN'S DIARY

with Steve Foster

AIMING FOR EUROPE

Last Saturday's win over Sheffield Wednesday was an important one. Not only did it consolidate our position in the top six, but it also meant we could overcome physical teams at the top of the table . . . and it keeps open the outside chance that we could win a place in Europe next year.

It is always important to keep morale and spirits high and that sort of win did a lot to ensure we stayed in a very confident frame of mind, particularly as we have been hit by an unfortunate run of injuries.

With Brian out now for a while, it is only sensible to recall Mark Stein from Aldershot. He has a lot to play for and it does seem Brian could be out for a few weeks.

Marc's Metro

On a more cheerful note, I am glad to report that Marc North has at last bought himself "the business"—a Metro turbo, I think it is! It was high time he bought himself something to drive.

And on the subject of strikers, I must mention that Mike Newell—who has settled in exceptionally well—had already picked up four or five nicknames in the dressing room. And they have all stuck! The latest—no, not psycho—is Cilla . . . after that other famous Scouser Cilla Black.

Looking forward to a game of golf

With this cold spell and the snow, I bet that all you Junior Hatters are enjoying yourselves on the hills with sledges, bread-trays or even plastic bags. On my way in to training I could see a lot of you out enjoying the snow in the half-term holiday. I even took my family for an afternoon out in the snow with their sledge and got me going down the slopes near my home.

It is not much fun with two on a sledge and you can't see where you are going and you go over a bump and roll off on top of one another. Still it was all good fun! I will be glad when I can get out to play some golf. It seems weeks since I last had a game!

We should have artificial golf courses like our pitch. So we can play in the winter as we do on our pitch while some pitches are frozen and games have to be postponed we are still playing on our pitch.

Marcus and Stacey show their skills on the magic carpet

● In training: Marcus Tuite and Stacey North are pictured in action during training on our synthetic pitch at Kenilworth Road this week.

Introducing Arsenal

Since their last visit to Kenilworth Road on February 15th Arsenal have been hit hard by the bad weather and also suffered injuries last Saturday when Republic of Ireland centre-half David O'Leary and England striker Tony Woodcock were injured during their 1-0 defeat at Newcastle.

But with games in hand they remain in a challenging position in the league in eighth place and, of course, retain hopes of reaching the sixth round of the Cup and a quarter-final at home to Tottenham Hotspur, their great north London rivals, or Everton.

Players likely to be on duty tonight: Steve Williams—Former Southampton star Steve joined the Gunners in a big-money transfer last season but has since fallen out of favour and lost his place in the England squad. Now fighting to reclaim his midfield spot.

Tony Woodcock—England striker Tony joined Arsenal from Cologne after a distinguished spell in West Germany. He previously played for Nottingham Forest.

John Lukic—John took over from Pat Jennings last season and went on to make 30 appearances. Born Chesterfield, he joined from Leeds in 1983. under-21 cap.

Viv Anderson—Joined Arsenal in 1984 after developing into an England full-back. Missed only one game last season and only two so far this term.

Kenny Sansom—One of the finest attacking left-backs in the First Division, Kenny is the Arsenal captain and a regular England player.

Paul Mariner—Bolton-born Paul, now 32, has played midfield recently after a long career as centre-forward. Ex-Plymouth and Ipswich, he was England leader in the 1982 World Cup.

David O'Leary—Arsenal's longest-serving player, stopper David is an Eire international and former Gunners' captain.

Martin Keown—Has ousted Caton in recent weeks from the number six shirt. Born Ox-

Arsenal manager Don Howe is also chief assistant to England manager Bobby Robson. Wolverhampton-born, he played for West Bromwich Albion and Arsenal as right-back, winning 23 England caps. He took over as Arsenal manager in December 1983 after previously managing West Bromwich Albion and Galatasary in Turkey and working as Terry Neill's assistant at Highbury. A believer in the high work rate and competitive qualities of English soccer, he said. "Our youth players are competitive first and foremost. The skill will come out later on. You get nothing unless you compete." His reshaped team has proved him true in recent weeks.

Ian Allinson—Hitchin-born Ian has developed into a useful finisher and regular member of the Gunners attack after moving to Highbury on a free transfer from Colchester in 1983. Stewart Robson—Versatile former England youth captain, a competitive midfielder on the verge of an international call-up, but hit by injuries in recent weeks. Now 21.

David Rocastle—Promising midfielder with thrilling acceleration, David has shot to fame recently as Robson's deputy in midfield. Charlie Nicholas—Joined from Celtic in 1983 after scoring 52 goals in Scotland the previous season. His renaissance this season has seen him return to the Scotland team.

Niall Quinn—Tall (6ft 4ins) Eire youth striker Niall made a spectacular scoring debut against Liverpool and has since kept Tony Woodcock out of the team. Aged 19.

Graham Rix—Former England midfielder with educated left foot, Graham has recovered from Achilles tendon trouble and reclaimed his Arsenal place this season.

Why we used to play on grass

WHEN the new Kenilworth Road synthetic pitch was installed last August, it was logical to assume that there would be some doubters. Not as much as the storm that greeted Queens Park Rangers' new pitch, but that was four years ago and opinions have, in theory, become more moderate. As the shock wore off and the pitch's merits became obvious, we hoped a considered attitude would prevail throughout football.

In a way, we were right as our own and visiting players realised just how good "Sporturf Professional" is; as a succession of physiotherapists found that "shock horror" stories of injuries on a synthetic surface just were not so. Visiting managers also found the pitch okay.

But some sections of the media and indeed some senior football figures seem determined to fan the flames of controversy, particularly as there is little else to write about. Even when the "facts" they quote are simply untrue. Could it be that the more entrenched football figures, seeing a growing number of League clubs opting for synthetic pitches are worried that they will be forced into doing likewise by their own supporters, who would rather see fast paced skilful football than mud-wrestling, or risk injury on frozen pitches.

As for the media, the Daily Mail ran two articles in a week recently condemning "plastic pitches". Those articles were stacked with untruths and, perhaps the most irritating to Luton Town, is the lumping together of all synthetic pitches under the same banner.

Once and for all, Luton Town's pitch is the only one of its kind in football; cannot be compared with the first generation surfaces; and is the ONLY pitch that meets the criteria laid down by the Sir Walter Winterbottom Committee on pitch standards for professional football. Our pitch, according to those criteria, matches the very best grass pitches. No other synthetic surface can make that claim.

Come to think of it... how many grass pitches can?

VIEWS from the MEDIA

On a pitch "as green as lettuce"

Our victory last Saturday over Sheffield Wednesday consolidated our league position and drew praise from the press for our performance on a day when bad weather and frozen pitches once again caused several postponements. Here is a selection of the comments from papers:

The Sunday Times: "The crusade of the Leicester City officials against the perils of plastic will have received no encouragement from this match. The pitch was shorn of its fleece of snow in the morning and emerged as green as lettuce. Ten thousand people paid to watch and two teams managed to ease the League's fixture problems.

"Sheffield Wednesday's hopes of ending in the talent money took another knock its true but after their lucky draw against Third Division Derby in midweek they can hardly blame the pitch for that. Wednesday were ponderous, predictable, and never looked like scoring."

The Sunday Telegraph: "A powerful headed goal by Mick Harford in the 16th minute gave Luton victory over a workmanlike and uninventive Sheffield Wednesday. No pitch, artificial or otherwise, would have done anything to improve their game.

"Apart from the match being played, there was precious little to warm the cockles of anybody's heart. Harford although his 18th goal of the season was an excellent one had a quiet game."

Match-winner Harford

Daily Express: "Match-winner Mick Harford was in the Luton treatment room on Sunday battling to beat a thigh strain that threatened him for the FA Cup replay at Arsenal. His 18th goal of the season was enough to beat Sheffield Wednesday and leave manager David Pleat convinced the beefy striker can force his way into England's World Cup squad."

THE LUTON TOWN STORY

TODAY'S big match fixture against our famous north London rivals provides the perfect opportunity to dive onto the club's history and reproduce a few sections from the book to celebrate our centenary, The Luton Town Story 1885-1985, which is due out in its second edition very soon.

One of the most popular sections of the book is that in which the author Timothy Collings produced match reports of several of the great games in the club's 100 years, starting with an FA Cup clash with Sherwood Foresters in December 1893. That report is reproduced here today to give present day fans a taste for the past, alongside a section from a later cup-tie played against West Ham in 1936.

The ideal gift

Both reports are featured of course in the centenary history along with a fully-documented record of the club. The book includes sketches of the great players, pen pictures of the managers and directors and a fully-researched statistical section produced by club statistician Roger Wash.

It is the ideal gift for any Town fan, old or young, and will doubtless be in great demand again. Make sure you are one of the first to buy a copy if you missed out last year.

Order your copy now to avoid disappointment—it's a book every supporter will be proud to read.

John Ryan made 266 League appearances for Luton between 1969 and 1976 after starting his career as a professional at Arsenal. He was club captain and player of the year and a great favourite as an attacking right back. He left for Norwich, Seattle, Sheff Utd. and Man City.

Peter Nicholas joined the Town in the last week of January 1985 and made his debut against Spurs at Kenilworth Road. He began his career at Crystal Palace and joined Arsenal for £400,000 in 1981. He returned to Palace in 1983.

IN DAYS OF OLD . . .

A large crowd of about 2,000 enjoying a beautiful fine and mild afternoon greeted the teams who had fought without ultimate reward in an unfinished match the previous week at Colchester. Luton were leading there 3—2 when the match was abandoned and this replay ordered. The Foresters had travelled from Derby, staying overnight at Bedford, and arrived at the Luton ground soon after 1.00 pm. A heavy rainfall had left the turf sodden, but not unplayable and a light wind blew across the pitch.

Strong attack

Luton kicked off and, within three minutes, were in the lead. The goalkick provided them with the chance to gain possession and they made a strong attack on the left. It resulted in a centre from Dimmock and a hard shot by Galbraith which Cragg, the golakeeper managed to throw out.

Allen however was on the spot and he dashed in to head a clever goal. Enthusiastic applause, which was the order of the day, greeted his goal.

Pressed hard

The Luton team then pressed hard, forced several corners and often seemed certain to score. One report describe it thus: "The Luton forwards swarmed around the Foresters' goalposts . . . but the military custodian saved grandly, though down on the ground." Finally, against the run of play, the visitors retaliated and gained some reward.

Brown, Luton's right winger, stopped a ball on the touchline, but was adjudged to have allowed it to go out. It was a decision with which few people in the ground agreed. From the throw-in the soldiers made a dazzling assault and from Potter's centre, Roberts scored with a smart shot under the bar.

Yesterdays

Half-time 1—1

The Foresters were first to show in attack in the second half. They forced a save from Bee in the Luton goal, before Dimmock centred at the other end for Allen. The forward had a fine chance but narrowly missed.

Luton were inspired for a spell and soon after Gorton was penalised for a foul on Galbraith, dangerous as ever. Julian took the kick, but the ball landed in the net untouched. Then Galbraith had a chance of his own, but just missed the post with his shot.

Disappointment was brief for the centre-forward, however, as he quickly atoned for his miss with a grand single handed run which completely tricked his opponents and he shot a goal which proved to be a winner. This was only 11 minutes after the interval.

High excitement

It was high excitement. Luton made further determined assaults on the visitors' goal, one ending with Galbraith offside, then Roberts fouled Finlayson badly and Bourke, the referee cautioned him, at the same time telling all the players he would send off the next man who used foul tactics.

After this, the Foresters broke away again and Roberts scored, but Potter was ruled previously offside in the move. Luton had to battle through, surviving several scrapes, to qualify for the competition proper with their narrow win.

Luton Town: E. Bee, J. Wilston, W. Chesher, J. Watkins, J. W. Julian, A. H. Taylor, W. Brown, J. Finlayson, H. Galbraith, F. Allen, J. Dimmock.

Match played December 23rd, 1893: FA Cup fourth round replay.

Mike Newell fires in a shot at Highbury when the Town were beaten 2—1 in a fierce match.
