THE MATCH DETAILS

dismissed his team as one that simply had Manager's viewpoint not performed against the Town.

Deeper analysis was not forthcoming, but the groundsman was unpopular — Nicholl and he were with the manager apparently complaining that fire fragme, with the manager apparently complaining that fire the game, grave was too long and too wet.

There were no complainted fraction from started well, complained at Archem changed their attitude and became less positive.

And the perfectionist manager had a grunnlab about one aspect of the result: "We should have soon at a least once meet."

The bose felt that the way Richard Harvey, Cer Ugless and Joan Gees played was a house, as was dian James's performance in midfield to replace.
