point, although it did not produce the sustained pressure we saw against

The Town had a very good first half and were unlucky to be only one goal ahead at the interval. The only criticism was that they did not have as many goal attempts as their possession and swift passing warranted. Home fans booed their team at half-time and manager Terry Butcher gave them a verbal going-over in the dressing room.

The second half was vastly different. Coventry raised the pace,
